Action News! – Voting & Elections

Texas Primary Election Day

If you haven't voted yet, tomorrow is your last chance. ALL Texas voters should vote in the primary of their choice – or participate in the Green or Libertarian Party's Conventions – unless you plan to sign a petition for an independent candidate. If you don't strongly identify with any political party, you can and should carefully consider the choices and participate in one of the primaries or conventions.

A reminder, the League's policies clearly state: "All state and local board members are encouraged to vote in the primary of their choice." Being a League leader does not mean that you shouldn't vote in a primary election. For more information about the importance of participating, see <https://my.lwv.org/texas/election-information>.

GOTV

LWVTX and local Leagues in many communities are encouraged that business is ready to empower employees with nonpartisan information needed to vote in Texas. LWVTX is working with the North Texas Commission, an organization of businesses to increased voter participation in Texas will create a more representative and responsive government.

LWVTX joined with Texas Educators Votes in a coalition of educator organizations whose goal was to create a nonpartisan culture of voting in Texas public schools. LWVTX voter education resources businesses and educators may find useful include the nonpartisan League Voter Guide found at www.VOTE411.org or www.LWVTexas.org, voter registration opportunities, presentations, and many voter education resources etc.

The LWVTX has worked hard to promote www.VOTE411.org. This valuable online resource is the site to go to for our nonpartisan voter guide and is being promoted by organizations on the web Texas Tribune, Texas Standard, GoVoteTexas.org, Texas Educators Vote TAB #MarchMatters and many others.

Voting is what makes democracy work!
