We will be discussing: The Two-Family House by Lynda Cohen Loigman

Synopsis: Loigman's debut novel is an engrossing family saga set in post-World War II Brooklyn. It focuses on two families that are inextricably linked by blood, marriage and a long-held secret. Brothers Abe and Mort took over their family box business when their father died, even though Mort had his heart set on studying mathematics. The brothers share a two-family house with their wives and children.
