

Steve Vetrano: Avondale House's New CEO

The board of directors for Avondale House is pleased to announce that it has approved Steve Vetrano to be the agency's next Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director.

Steve is a respected and dedicated executive who has served non-profits throughout his career – most recently as Chief Executive Officer of the American Red Cross, Texas Gulf Coast Region, since June 2009. Steve has a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications from Manhattan College (in the Bronx borough of New York City) and a MBA from Penn State University.

Through the United Way of Greater Houston and other connections within the Houston non-profit community, Steve was quite familiar with Avondale House, including its history and mission, and he is excited to assume a leadership role as we look to the future. He formally joins Avondale House on January 30, 2017. Steve is a proven leader, and the board is confident that he will be an excellent fit.
