DEAR COLLEAGUE:

Welcome to Atlanta and to the 58th NABE Annual Meeting! Over the next few days, you will have the opportunity to glean insights from the dozens of prominent economists, analysts, policymakers and business leaders joining us to provide their views and analyses.

This year's theme, Global Business, Domestic Tension: Navigating the World Economy, underscores the multi-faceted realities confronting both the world economy and the science of economics. Expect to come away with insights and information you can put to use right away!

Our sincerest thanks for arranging this exciting program go to the NABE conference planning committee, led by chairs Jim Diffley, CBE, IHS Markit; Michael Drury, CBE, McVean Trading and Investments; and Kathleen Stephansen, CBE, Boston Consulting Group.

For your convenience, speakers' handouts and remarks will be posted at www.NABE.com/AM2016_Materials before, during, and after the conference. To help us plan future conferences, please be sure to return the appraisal form at the program's conclusion on Tuesday afternoon.

Again, thank you for joining us in Atlanta. Enjoy!

Sincerely yours,
