◆ STRANGULATION SUSPECT ARRESTED

A Cartersville man turned himself into the Bartow County Jail Wednesday. Jeramya Truman Laughridge, 36, Etowah Drive, is charged with aggravated assault by strangulation, battery, criminal trespass, criminal damage to property and failure to appear.

◆ FORMER CLERK INDICTED

A Cherokee County grand jury has indicted Jennifer Aimee Abernathy, 43, Cartersville, for two counts of theft by taking (felony). The Cherokee Co. Sheriff's Office arrested Abernathy in January for allegedly making fraudulent payroll payments to herself totalling about $25,000 for almost 5 years while she served as city clerk. She also allegedly used the city's credit accounts for personal purchases worth at least $5,000. Abernathy was the Waleska City Clerk when the thefts occurred. She resigned from her job in October.

◆ JEWELRY TAKEN IN BURGLARY

Bartow County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to 12 Whipporwill Lane, White, Wednesday to a burglary. A blue bag with many pieces of jewelry were taken. The report said a man was seen walking toward a vehicle near the residence. When confronted by a neighbor the suspect said he was working on a house under construction next door. The resident was told to call the sheriff's office if the suspect came back.
