LOCAL NEWS◆ WOMAN DIES FROM BURNS

Bartow E.M.S. responded Friday to a residence off Iron Belt Rd. after an elderly woman had burns to her face, neck, chest and back. She had possibly been smoking while using oxygen. She was transported by ambulance due to all medical helicopters not flying due to weather and low visibility. She was transported to Cobb General's burn center where she later died.

◆ MITCHAM NAMED TO STATE BOARD

Georgia Governor Nathan Deal appointed 26 people to boards. Locally, Deal reappointed John "Bart" Mitcham to the Georgia Board of Private Detective and Security Agencies. Mitcham is a licensed private detective and owner of Action Detective Agency. He is a retired naval intelligence and designated flight officer with more than 25 years of service and a licensed state instructor for private investigators and firearm use. He earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Central Oklahoma and graduated with honors from the Naval Intelligence School. He and his wife, Mary Diane, live in Cartersville.

TOP NEWS

◆ The Ga. Department of Labor will host a recruitment for sheet-vinyl manufacturer Beauflor USA on Thursday, September 15th at the Cartersville Career Center, 19 Felton Place, from 9 a.m.-6 p.m. The company is recruiting for forklift pole hyster drivers, industrial maintenance mechanics, industrial maintenance electricians, and handy men. All applicants must be at least 18 years old. Applicants for the electrician and mechanic positions must have a technical degree with a bachelor's in their respective fields preferred. For more www.employgeorgia.com.

◆ The Adairsville Police Department is advising if you receive a phone call from someone indicating they need to come and take a water sample, it is not a representative from the City of Adairsville. It appears this company is trying to determine when people are at home and to solicit personal information. If you get these calls, contact the Adairsville Police Department to file a report.

◆ A Cobb Co. jury indicted Elizabeth Wall, 63, for the June shooting death of her daughter in law, kindergarten teacher, Jenna Wall, 35. Jenna Wall was going through a divorce with the suspect's son. The couple's children age 6 and 8 were inside the home when their mother was killed.
