Day 2: Sun, Apr 29 2018 - Troon, Prestwick

Enjoy a round of golf at the Prestwick Golf Course. The club was founded in 1851 by a group of 57 members who met at the Red Lion Inn, Prestwick. Its first Captain was The Earl of Eglinton, who presented a gold medal for annual competition; the Eglinton gold medal is still played for to this day. Colonel Fairlie of Coodham brought Tom Morris with his wife Agnes and son young Tommy to Prestwick from St. Andrews, to be the "Keeper of the Green, Ball, and Club Maker." Prestwick is a classic links golf course, built on the rolling sandy land lying between the beach and the land further inland. The course is located near the Prestwick airport, and some holes run along railway tracks on the eastern side of the course. Prestwick is famous as the initial originator and sponsor of The Open Golf Championship, the oldest of golf's four major championships. Green fee included.

Stats: Prestwick Golf Course 18 holes, par 71, yards 6544. Handicap Limits are 24 for men and 28 for ladies.

Tee off at Royal Troon today. The Royal Troon Old Course is a challenging test of golfing ability. With the wind to contend with and thick rough interspersed with gorse and broom, accurate shot making is essential. The Portland is a little more sheltered than the Old Course and, of course, shorter. The holes meander through terrain filled with gorse and broom and have a generous helping of Par 3's and Par 5's. Green fee included.
