

RECENT PHOTOS:

A.A.R.P. Luncheon & POW-MIA Recognition Ceremony

On September 14, during an AARP Chapter 710 Luncheon, Mayor Desiderio and representatives from Sea Isle City's Municipal Alliance Committee invited the AARP members to an interactive workshop on October 12 called "Hidden in Plain Sight." During Hidden in Plain Sight, which is free and open to the public, participants will get a closer look at the latest substance abuse trends and hiding spots – and they will learn specifically what to look for in their own homes (including ways kids hide harmful drugs and paraphernalia "in plain sight"). For more info about Hidden in Plain Sight, see the special section of this E-Newsletter...

Shown on September 14 are (from left) Mayor's Assistant Pattiann Ponichtera, SICPD Captain Tom McQuillen, Cape May County Clerk Rita Marie Fulginiti, SIC Municipal Alliance Committee Chair Kellie Seib, County Undersheriff Robert Nolan, Mayor Desiderio, AARP Chapter 710 President Frank Roach, Chapter 710 Vice-President Joann Gallagher, Chapter 710 Treasurer Joe Robinson, and Chapter 710 Secretary Edna Tarantola...

Afterwards, the members of Chapter 710 enjoyed a festive autumn luncheon. To learn more about AARP Chapter 710, phone 609-390-7844...

On September 15, Sea Isle City hosted the Cape May County American Legion's 2017 POW-MIA Recognition Day Ceremony at Veterans Park, where American Legion members, elected officials and other County residents gathered to honor and remember our nation's Prisoners of War and those who are still Missing in Action...

The dignitaries who participated in the American Legion's 2017 POW MIA Recognition Day Ceremony posed for a photo with the World War 2 veterans from the Brookdale Senior Living Home, who traveled to Sea Isle City just to attend the event...

# #