

RECENT PHOTOS:

March 1, 2018 E-Newsletter

The 10th Annual Mike's Seafood Polar Bear Run-Walk for Autism attracted thousands of people to the Promenade on Sunday, February 18, for an afternoon filled with a competitive race and family-friendly activities...

Following the Run-Walk for Autism on the Promenade, all of the event's participants were invited back to LaCosta Lounge for an after-party and award ceremony, which featured lively music from the Ferko String Band, entertainment for the kids and much more...

The overall first place winner of this year's 5K Run for Autism was Zach Miller, 34, of West Chester, PA, who finished the race in 15-minutes, 52-seconds. Zach (center) is shown with Bridgette Higgins, 31, of Scotch Plains, NJ, who was the first place winner in the 5K's Women's Division, finishing the race in 19-minutes, 9-seconds. Also shown are (from left) Mike Monichetti, Event Coordinator; Mike Givens, Race Director; and Jimmy Bennett, Polar Bear Plunge Organizer...

After the 5K Awards Ceremony, 2018 Polar Queen Kate O'Brien and King Mike Johnson presented a check for $18,000 to the Polar Bear Run-Walk for Autism. The King and Queen have been raising money for this event (and to earn their crowns) since last autumn...

Each year, Mike and Jeannie Monichetti (shown below) host the Run-Walk for Autism to benefit Autism Speaks, Special Services Schools, Autism Support Groups, and Special Needs Families.

*As the Mike and Jeannie always say:
"Any day you can do something for children with disabilities is a good day."*

*For more info about the Polar Bear Run-Walk for Autism or for complete 5K Race Results, visit:
<http://www.polarbearrunwalkforautism.com> .*

###