

RECENT PHOTOS:

2017 Fall Family Festival – Sunday

On Saturday and Sunday, September 16 and 17, the City's Division of Tourism hosted Sea Isle City's annual Fall Family Festival. Sunday of Fall Family Festival featured free Guided Historical Trolley Tours, live music on the Promenade and the festival's annual Antique Auto Show and Parade...

At the end of the Antique Auto Show, the Mayor's Trophy was presented to a beautiful teal blue 1957 Chevrolet Bel-Air convertible, owned by Jim and Janice Schultz, of Swedesboro, NJ and Sea Isle City (accompanied by family friend Gabe Ianone, 15)...

The Auto Show's "Best in Show" trophy went to an eye-catching red 1959 Chevrolet Impala convertible, owned by Ron Agasar, of Yardley, PA and Brigantine, NJ. Mr. Agasar had with him a copy of the Impala's 1959 manufacturer's suggested retail sticker, which listed the vehicle's cost at $3,738.35 – including $150.65 for the car's Turbo Thrust 348 V-8, $12.85 for white wall tires, $77.45 for 4-speed manual transmission, and $6.98 for deluxe colored mats...

# #