and the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit
be with you all.

All                And with your spirit.

RECEPTION OF THE HOLY OILS

Fr. Jim Schwartz continues:

My friends, we are gathered together on this holy night to begin the Easter Triduum.

United with the Church throughout the world, we commemorate the suffering, death, and resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

We begin as he did: at the Passover table of the Last Supper. On Tuesday evening, united with the people of the Diocese of Rochester, Bishop Salvatore Matano consecrated the holy chrism and blessed the oils for use in the anointing of the sick and in the preparation of catechumens for Baptism.

Tonight we receive these holy oils, which we will use in the celebration of the sacraments.

By means of these powerful symbols, the crucified and risen Savior will continue in our midst the work he began at his death and resurrection: the work of forgiveness, healing and new life.

Oil Bearers go to up the stairs to the altar platform here as the Music begins--the Cantor will lead the people in song.

As each individual petition is intoned, the person holding the oil holds it high, one hand underneath—the litany will be sung in this order:

- 1      “This is the Oil of the Sick...”
- 2      “This is the Oil of the Catechumens...”
- 3      “This is the Sacred Chrism...”

Once all three of the oils have been held up, as we are singing ‘Thanks Be To God’ for the third and last time, the three oil bearers go down the stairs in front of them and meet Deacon Bill Coffey who will lead the three oil bearers back the middle aisle to the ambry. They will hand the oil vessels to Deacon Bill one at a time and he will place them into the ambry—toppers for vessels will be on the shelves. They will walk back to their pews and Deacon Bill will go to his chair, joining the clergy in the sanctuary. OIL BEARERS – Leave sanctuary after the ‘thanks be to God is sung’ following Sacred Chrism.

NO PENITENTIAL ACT

*****When the music ends for the Presentation of the Oils, Bill Crandall begins tolling the bells, turning on one switch at a time and the bells continue throughout the Glory to God, until the Amen.

WASHING OF THE FEET

Fr. Jim

Tonight we follow the command of Jesus to wash each other's feet. The first Eucharist was more than a simple meal—it was a sign of sharing in the sacrifice that Jesus would offer. We invite all forward to experience this beautiful ritual. There are three stations; here in front and one to my right and one to my left. As we solemnly respond to the Lord's command, let us take time to reflect on the words and rituals we celebrate this night. Let us be people willing to bend down in humble service.

*Fr. Jim invites people to come forward for the washing of the feet ritual. As soon as he begins to invite the assembly, the Teams for Washing of the Feet go to their designated stations--SEE BELOW—Worship Leadership Team should have some people ready to go first from the assembly. The 'foot washer's will do the ritual, when finished, wash each other's feet and leave the towels, bowls and pitchers where they are and members of the WLT will straighten up stations*. At the end of the ritual the teams at the chairs wash each other's feet, cueing the Musicians that the ritual has ended.*

Fr. Jim We have just celebrated the washing of feet as our Lord commanded. Let us bring our needs to God, whose gift of the Eucharist gives us the strength to follow Jesus' example.

Deacon Bill Coffey

1. For the Church throughout the world and here in our own parish as we strive to follow Jesus' model of loving service and mercy. Cantor

2. For peace throughout all the world Cantor

3. For those who grow our grain and grapes, who make our wine and bake our daily bread, and see to our many physical needs. Cantor

4. For our parish community and especially those to be baptized and received into the Church, that our faith be deepened as we celebrate these holiest days of the year. Cantor

5. For the sick and homebound of St. Joseph's parish community and all who take the Eucharist to them, that their living communion with us in the Body of Christ be a source of healing and strength. Especially those for whom we now pray. (pause) Cantor

6. For all who have died to know the embrace of our loving God. Especially those for whom we now pray. (pause) Cantor

7. For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts; for all our intentions spoken and unspoken, (pause) Cantor

Fr. Jim

Good and Gracious God, we ask you to hear our prayers today. May our celebration of this most holy Eucharistic Banquet bring us closer to the day when all will be one in you and Christ Jesus our Lord, forever and ever. Amen

TRANSFER OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT — Pange Lingua, English/Latin

Invitation:

Fr. Jim Schwartz invites the assembly to take part in the procession around the church and returning to their pews at some point. Some members of the choir will join the procession, as well.

First Incensation:

Duncan and Matt will have prepared incense and take thurible/incense up to the altar so that Fr. Jim Schwartz can incense the Blessed Sacrament in silence before going into the procession around the church. Fr. Jim Schwartz puts incense in the thurible and then genuflects – incensing the Blessed Sacrament three times.

Procession Begins led by Thurifers:

Assisted by Duncan, Matthew Blayhj (E) and Grace Kurzweil (W) are standing at the head of the side aisles, ready to lead the ‘double’ procession. (red bowls with sand/burning incense) Other servers following one of the processions --- and when priest and deacons get to tabernacle, they go back to their altar server chairs. The thurifers will walk at a slower pace than normal procession – remembering that people are getting in and out of the pews behind them – watch to make sure they are going at the same pace and be sure that the priests and deacon are not too far behind.

Priest and Deacon move down the side stairs in opposite directions:

From the altar, Fr. Jim (east wing) and Deacon Bill(west wing) take a vessel with the Blessed Sacrament, turn and face their aisle, walk down the side stairs (not down the front of stairs) toward each altar server with the bowls of incense. Altar Servers lead.

Path of the Procession:

Fr. Jim’s group goes to middle aisle East wing(music area), right to the side aisle---Left turn to side aisle main—right turn to main aisle---meeting up with Deacon Bill at font

Deacon Bill’s group goes to the middle aisle West wing-tabernacle side, left to the side aisle---Right to the side aisle main ---left turn to main aisle---meeting up with Fr. Jim at font, then both down the middle aisle.

End of Procession – go directly to Tabernacle:

Once Fr. Jim and Deacon Bill have arrived together at the foot of the altar – they turn to the left and walk directly to their left, to the tabernacle – and the incense bearers deposit bowls on grate and get the gold thurible and incense boat and stand ready near tabernacle. Tabernacle will be open (Kathy Best did this earlier) – As Fr. Jim and Deacon Bill place the Blessed Sacrament into the tabernacle, the music stops.

Second Incensation: Incensing in Silence:

- Thurifers, Matt Blahy and Grace Kurzweil have left the bowls of incense in the back to be deposited outside and go to the tabernacle area with gold thurible and incense, ready to assist Fr. Jim
- Once the singing ends, Fr. Jim places incense into the thurible and kneeling, incenses the Blessed Sacrament in silence. We can hear the chain against the thurible.

Singing begins for Tantum Ergo and Incense ---

- Fr. Jim gives thurible back to altar servers, closes door of tabernacle, then kneels. Cue music here: Music begins--verses 9-10/Tantum Ergo. Priest and Deacon stay until both verses are over.
- Incense bearer and thurifer take the incense boat outside through Sacristy to the outside. They also make sure that the bowls with sand are outside at this time.

Singing ends and Ministers go to the Front of Altar Steps

- The choir leading song at the tabernacle exits through the Blessed Sacrament Chapel and not past the tabernacle in the worship space. Priest and Deacon and all of the rest of the liturgical ministers—altar servers, readers --- go to the front of the altar steps and kneel---Altar is stripped.

STRIPPING OF THE ALTAR

ALL SING: 'stay with me, remain here with me, watch and pray, watch and pray' TAIZÉ
