

ART EXHIBITS

Angela Jackson, Ebb & Flow

Thru January 1. Mixed media encaustic on canvas. Local mixed media artist and art educator, Angela Jackson is inspired by the healing properties and beauty of the ocean. She is a Visual Art teacher at San Dieguito High School Academy and an Advisory Board Member of the Encinitas Friends of the Arts. , will hold an artist’s reception from 4pm-5pm on RECEPTION: Monday, December 11, 4-5pm. Encinitas 101 Main Street Association, 818 S. Coast Highway 101. 760-943-1950. Info

Marilyn Huerta, Life Is Art, Live Yours In Color!

Thru January 25. Acrylic Painting. The artwork is not a mere decoration on a wall, but rather works that breathe. Created from the heart, it’s about healing, coping, connecting and communicating colorful works. Civic Center Gallery, City Hall, 505 S. Vulcan Avenue. 760-633-2600. Info

Barbara Mastro, Natural Abstractions/Shapes of the World

Thru January 9. Acrylic Painting. The abstracts are comprised of color and shapes that are basic to design, and allow each person their own interpretation of what they see. The artwork responds to our dynamic environment, and the elements of nature. Encinitas Library Gallery, 540 Cornish Drive. 760-753-7376. Info

Julia Rasor, Portrayals of Women

Thru January 9. Figurative Sculpture. Bronze and ceramic, earlier artworks, portraying women from realistic to abstract forms. Encinitas Library Gallery, 540 Cornish Drive. 760-753-7376. Info

Alex Long, The Art of Raku

Thru January 23. Pottery. These one-of-a-kind pieces in Raku, are small to monumental in size, and are perfected in the firing process creating beautiful glazes and unique art pieces. Civic Center Gallery, City Hall, 505 S. Vulcan Avenue. 760-633-2600. Info

Rebecca Bauer, In The Moment

Thru January 31. Collage, Mixed Media. Painted collage elements shape the components incorporated into the work, allowing the freedom and control over the texture, size, shape and nuances of color. "A creative journey of becoming ever mindful of the truth and grace each moment encompasses." RECEPTION: December 16, 1-4pm, invitation only. Encinitas Community Center Gallery, 1140 Oakcrest Park Drive. 760-943-2260. Info

James Stone, An Adventure under the Sea

Thru January 31. Blown Glass. The sea creatures and marine-themed sculptures are created in hot glass, to portray the beauty of the ocean's diverse flora and fauna. RECEPTION: January 20, 1-4pm, invitation only. Encinitas Community Center Gallery, 1140 Oakcrest Park Drive. 760-943-2260. Info

Lynn Leahy, Figures in Glass

Thru January 31. Glass Painting. The technique involves multiple layers of paint on two and three-dimensional vessels, painted in reverse, on the inside. This quality gives depth of color unique to one of a kind artwork. Encinitas Community Center Gallery, 1140 Oakcrest Park Drive. 760-943-2260. Info

Sculpture in the Garden VIII

Thru April. This unique exhibition showcases 50 sculptures from 32 talented artists set against the beautiful backdrop of San Diego Botanic Garden. All sculptures are for sale. Naomi Nussbaum, Curator. Hours: 9am-5pm daily. Free with paid admission or membership. San Diego Botanic Garden. 230 Quail Gardens Drive. 760-436-3036. Sculpture Map Info