

SB CAN TRAUMA RESPONSE TEAM
In partnership with
Laboure Learning Center and Saint Peter's Church
BACH
Grief after Suicide: Finding Hope & Healing

Wednesday, June 21st, 2017
10:00 a.m. to 3:00p.m.

Saint Peter's Church
75 Flaherty Way, South Boston, MA
Light lunch will be served

John R. Jordan, PhD., "Grief after Suicide" is presenting a workshop on skills helpful to treat clients dealing with grief after suicide. This will be an opportunity to find new tools in helping those suffering from overwhelming grief and find hope and healing.

Who Should Attend

People working in the field of suicide and addiction, and for those living with loved ones who suffer from addiction.

Contact Kay Walsh for more information @ 617-308-1154

Please RSVP: Kaywalsh13@hotmail.com

This event was made possible by funding from South Boston Substance Abuse Prevention Collaborative, Boston Community Alliance for Health, Gillette Great Starts Grant, SB Community Development Foundation Grant