PARENTS,
KIDS AND PORN: THE CONVERSATION

Conversing with our kids about sex shouldn't be defined by a single, stammering, "talk" when our child hits puberty. Like the pursuit of purity itself, communication with our kids is lifelong. The Conversation will address how to initiate age-appropriate discussion free of fear and shame, how to approach technology, social media and pornography, and ultimately how to create an atmosphere of openness and honesty in your home where you are the go-to person for your kids.

PARENTS, KIDS AND PORN: THE CONVERSATION

GOD'S DESIGN: Strong, loving and supportive relationships between parents and kids is the biblical model. Open honest communication is critical to such relationships. In today's culture such relationships and communication must include the issue of pornography.

THE REALITY: Our kids are looking at pornography in staggering numbers. The negative impact lasts well beyond their youth into adulthood and marriage.

MOVING AHEAD: Parents need to be the primary source of information for their kids about pornography and its harm. If parents are not the "go to" source of information then kids will turn to the internet and peers. But parents need help in deciding when to start. How to begin? How to keep the lines of communication open?
