

Bella Boo

Bella Boo is an adorable Cattle Dog Labrador who was surrendered because her family no longer had time for her. She is an amazing dog who has so much personality and would be a perfect fit for most families. Bella Boo loves to go for car rides, long walks, playing with older children and does very well with other dogs. She would love a new forever home that can be as devoted to her as she will be to them.

Ginger Shadow

Ginger Shadow is an extremely sweet and loving young man, not to mention very handsome. He is a 3 year old Labrador mix who is on the hunt for his forever home. Ginger Shadow led a very sheltered life until he was brought into rescue. He is a little shy around new people and can be a little cautious in new situations but warms up very quickly. Ginger Shadow's foster family says that he is making great strides and is he is quickly realizing that new things can be fun. He would do great in a home that will be patient and help him come out of his shell.

Buck Brannaman

Buck is a dapper 8 year old Shepherd mix who firmly believes that age is only a number. This handsome boy is the perfect companion! He is clam but yet loves to go for walks, hang out with his canine friends, loves to give and get kisses and of course the occasional belly rub is always welcome, plus he has excellent house and leash manners. Buck would love a forever home that will spoil and love him for the rest of his life.

Sam the Man

How super cute is this Pit Bull mix! Sam the man was abandoned and obviously not treated very nice but all that has changed. He is now in a loving foster home and is doing amazing. He is determined to love and be loved. Sam the man ADORES children and would love a new forever home with children. He is a friendly, lovable guy who loves people and does well with other dogs with proper introductions. Sam the Man is a little shy at first, but quickly comes out of his shell and would love a forever home that can help him build some confidence.

Valerie Bertinelli

Valerie Bertinelli is a beautiful 3 year old Coonhound mix who is looking for her forever home. She is a very sweet girl who can be bossy with other dogs therefore she would do great as the only dog in the home. Valerie has a lot to offer and just needs someone to give her a chance. She is currently living and kennel and would love to find her forever home.
