TMCC Meadowood Center Hosts Open House for Community

Meadowood Showcases Classes and Certificates at Fun Event; Free Food, Radio Lazer Broadcast

Reno, Nev. – Meadowood Center now offers more job-improving certificate programs, all general education classes, and a smooth transition between high school equivalency and the college courses offered by Truckee Meadows Community College. To showcase the expanded programs at Meadowood, faculty and staff are sponsoring a Community Open House on Nov. 2.

“We hope to raise awareness for all the classes offered, and the programs and resources available at TMCC’s Meadowood Center, a very central location on hundreds of bus routes, and with free parking,” said Jean Lampson, administrative assistant, Business Division. “All are invited and the event is free.”

What: Meadowood Community Open House

When: Wednesday, Nov. 2, 3-6:00 p.m.

Where: TMCC Meadowood Center, 5270 Neil Road, Reno

The event will take place on the northeast courtyard, weather permitting, or indoors if outdoor temperature is too cool. To make the event festive and fun, the Business Division is offering the following:

- Free tacos while supplies last
- Free TMCC Meadowood T-shirts for the first 100 people
- Radio Lazer 107.7 FM remote broadcast, music
- Photo ops with Wizard, TMCC’s mascot

“You can change your career with certificate or college classes, get a job position upgrade or start a career you’ve always dreamed of,” Lampson added. “You can take all of your general education requirements for an associate degree at the Meadowood location. For those completing their high school equivalency, you can also start college classes at the same site.”

Many programs and departments will be represented at the Meadowood Community Open House:
