All: For this day moves us past darkness and despair.

One: Hopeful is the prayer upon our lips!

All: For this day awakens us to new life.

One: Jesus said, "Where two or more are gathered in my name, I am there among them."

All: Christ lives here and now; he is among us at this and every moment.

LITANY OF INVOCATION

Leader: Lord God, early in the morning, when the world was young, you made life in all its beauty and terror, you gave birth to all that we know.

All: Hallowed be your name.

Leader: Early in the morning, when the world least expected it, a newborn child crying in a manger announced that you had come among us.

All: Hallowed be your name.

Leader: Early in the morning, surrounded by respectable liars, religious leaders, anxious statesmen, and silent friends, you accepted the penalty for doing good, for being God: you shouldered and suffered the cross.

All: Hallowed be your name.

Leader: Early in the morning, a voice in a guarded graveyard and footsteps in the dew proved that you had risen, and that you had come back to those and for those who had forgotten, denied, and destroyed you.

All: Hallowed be your name.

Leader: This morning, in the company of your Church on earth and in heaven, we celebrate your creation, your life, your death, and resurrection, so we pray:

All: Lord, bring new life, where we are worn and tired;
New love, where we have turned hard-hearted;
Forgiveness, where we feel hurt and where we have wounded;
And the joy and freedom of your Holy Spirit, where we are prisoners of ourselves.
In Christ's name, we pray. Amen.

Arr. from "Lyra Davidica," 1708

1 Christ the Lord is risen to - day,
2 Je - sus lives, e - ter - nal spring,
3 Love's re - deem - ing work is done, Al - - le - lu - ia!
4 Soar we now where Christ has led,

Lyrics to the Anthem

“Rejoice This Glorious Day”

By Stan Pethel

Rejoice, rejoice this glorious day, let choir of angels sing.
The Lord of life has triumphed today, for Christ is risen, our King.

Come rejoice, lift your voice;
Let the heav’nly anthem sound.
All your days, join in praise,
See God’s glory all around.
Rejoice, rejoice this glorious day,
This joyous Easter day.

The stars of heaven shout in praise, as all creation sings.
The hills and valleys echo the joy our blest Redeemer brings.

From the highest heav’n He came, to a world of sin and shame,
Christ the Savior is His name, Hallelujah!

About the Handbell Anthem

Today’s offering is a lovely medley of four Easter hymns. Some are more familiar than others, but all work together to create this wonderful arrangement. We open with a very sparse “tolling” of the C₄ bell for several measures before we hear the hushed opening of the hymn, “Low In the Grave He Lay.” Suddenly, the highest bells enter, shaking very softly...perhaps to signify the early morning dawn breaking through when Mary comes and finds the empty tomb...and we hear the rest of this hymn. A transition of cascading bells brings us to “All Hail the Power of Jesus’ Name,” utilizing both tunes (Coronation and Diadem) associated with this text. Murmuring high bells lead us into the next hymn, “Crown Him with Many Crowns.” After hearing one verse, the arranger cleverly combines this with our final Easter hymn, “Christ the Lord Is Risen Today.” The high bells always play “Christ the Lord ...” while the bass bells play “Crown Him ...” This is done in an alternating way, line by line, until the two sections come together on “Raise your joys and triumphs high,” after which the piece comes to an end with a newly-written ending by yours truly (don’t anyone tell Mr. Blaylock, please!), complete with mini trumpet calls and a grand mart lift from the entire treble end of the table.

From death to life e - ter - nal, from sin's do - min - ion free,
