Subject: LUNCH-AND-LEARN SESSION: PHISHING SCAMS

LUNCH-AND-LEARN: PHISHING SCAMS – Bring your brown bag lunch, and join the Information Security Trainer for a discussion on how to recognize and report phishing scams.

The OIT/IPS – Information Security Office will hold a Lunch-and-Learn session on Wednesday, March 8, 2017 from 12 noon to 1:00 p.m. on the RBHS Newark Campus, Building ADMC 1/room 101, regarding phishing scams.

As phishing scams continue to be used by malicious actors in an effort to gain access to the university's proprietary systems, the Information Security Office will support the user community with helpful tips and guidance for dealing with this external threat.

RSVP to Sharkirah Foote, Information Security Trainer, via email at infosecurity@oit.rutgers.edu. Seating is limited. For more information, visit - <https://rusecure.rutgers.edu/content/events-announcements>.

Looking forward to seeing you there!
