

SC ASSOCIATION OF THE DEAF, INC.

TOWN HALL MEETING

Come join us for discussion and education!

Understanding the communication between the Deaf/Hard of Hearing and Law Enforcement Officers/First Responders

Date: Saturday, October 8, 2016

Time: 1:00 PM - 4:00 PM

Where: Still Hopes Episcopal Retirement Community Event Center (See Map)

1 Still Hopes Drive
West Columbia, SC 29169

We will have updates on what we have been doing with the Driver Communication Visor Card for Deaf/HH, Law Enforcement/First Responder Training. This is an opportunity for all to attend, ask questions, and learn.

ASL Interpreter, CART Service (Captions), and Hearing LOOP Available

Guests:

Deputy Dan Rusinyak of the Lexington County Sheriff Department

Brian Haley, Fire Prevention Officer of the Irmo Fire District

Michael Baker of the Columbia Police Department Training Development

Marquise Solomon, Assistant Chief of the West Columbia Fire Department

See Directions & Map on back (Look for blue balloons)

Contacts: HLAA-Midlands, Dave Bitters dabitters@gmail.com 803-250-7839
SCAD, Joy Hill joyhill@scadservices.org 803-794-3175 or VP803-403-9255

DIRECTIONS AND MAP

From West of Columbia on I-26: Hwy 321 toward West Columbia, merge onto Knox Abbott Drive, just past 9th Street. Turn left on Still Hopes Drive (formerly 7th St.) at the Cayce-West Columbia Magistrate's Office.

From East (Downtown Columbia, Assembly and Huger Streets): Take Blossom Street (east) which becomes Knox Abbott Drive. Cross the river. Go through 2 lights. Turn right onto Still Hopes Drive (formerly 7th St.) at the Cayce-West Columbia Magistrate's Office.

(See highlighted in yellow on map below)

Upon entering the complex on Still Hopes Drive, turn right at stop sign.

Go past the fire hydrant and park on the left between the Mansion and the Chapel of the Holy Spirit. Meeting is in the Event Center. Look for blue balloons. Take walkway toward the Event Center.

Entering the building you will see a dining area. Turn right, go past the dining area and follow hallway to the Event Center and sign post.

