GENERAL PROGRAM INFORMATION

Since 2008, the Washtenaw County Parks & Recreation Commission has sponsored summer playground programs for at-risk youth in economically disadvantaged neighborhoods in the Ypsilanti area. This effort includes hiring activity leaders, providing sports equipment, table games, and arts and craft supplies at each location during the summer.

The programs are available for up to 50 neighborhood children who completed kindergarten through age 11 at each site.

The program is FREE to participants, however registration is required. Space is limited so register soon!

WCPARC is excited to have partnered with other community organizations to enhance the Summer Playground Program for 2017, listed below are just a few!
