World Trade Center Kentucky Congratulates International Trade Certification Class

Lexington, Ky. – (June 6, 2018) The World Trade Center Kentucky (WTC-KY) is proud to announce the Spring 2018 graduates of its International Trade Certification.

The three-day program was taught by experts from banking, tax, legal, customs compliance, market intelligence, freight forwarding, customs brokerage, and government to provide a foundation for effective and efficient international trade operations management for participants.

This certification is accredited and nationally recognized by National Customs Brokers and Freight Forwarder’s Association of America (NCBFAA).

To pass the certification test, and become an “International Commerce Specialist”, participants must score a 70% or higher. The WTC-KY would like to congratulate our latest class of certificate graduates:

- Brittany Muncie – Link-Belt Cranes
- Robert Lohr – LBX Company, LLC
- Eric Woodlee – LBX Company, LLC
- Edward Maloy – LBX Company, LLC
- Courtney Crutcher – LBX Company, LLC
- Dennis Faulkner – Tempur-Pedic International Inc.
- Jeff Bastin – Hitachi Automotive Systems Americas, Inc.
- Jeff Durbin – Dri-View
- Joseph Robinson – Link-Belt Cranes
- Tara Boneta – Lectordryer, LLC
