The following position has been posted to the DCHR website, careers.dc.gov:

Policy Analyst, CS-0301–13, Job ID #3801 (1 position). This position serves as a Policy Analyst supporting the Policy & Compliance Division within the Energy Administration. This announcement is listed as “Open to the Public.” The opening date is June 4, 2018 and the closing date for this position is June 19, 2018.

Job description:
This position is located in the Energy Administration within the Policy and Compliance Division. The Policy Analyst will support the Energy Administration’s policy team, with a focus on achieving the Department’s climate and energy goals. The Policy Analyst will serve as a technical authority on quantitative energy and building data modeling and analysis; conduct research and participate in energy planning activities before the District of Columbia Public Service Commission (Commission); and help develop the EA’s strategic energy policies, initiatives and programs.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
Duties include but are not limited to: Perform energy modeling and quantitative analysis of the District of Columbia, based on consumption profiles and fuel types, and update the Department’s climate and energy plan, Clean Energy DC based on the energy modeling; Use available or simulated data to evaluate or model building energy performance; Create Geographic Information System (GIS) maps for locational modeling of energy demand, consumption, generation resources, and existing infrastructure, considering costs and technologies; Provide technical and analytical support for carbon-neutrality planning in the Department and resiliency initiatives; Evaluate various greenhouse gas accounting standards in the context of energy modeling and energy purchases; Research, analyze, and recommend innovative energy ideas, projects, and initiatives that will help the Department and the District achieve its climate and energy goals; and Create data visualization templates for important energy and carbon-based planning.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EDUCATION
Bachelor’s degree from an accredited four year-college or university in a relevant field, plus five (5) years of work related experience is preferred. At least one (1) year of which must be equivalent to the CS-12 grade level in the District of Columbia government service; Or an equivalent combination of education, training, and specialized experience.

LICENSE AND CERTIFICATION
None.

WORKING CONDITIONS/ENVIRONMENT
Work is primarily performed in a normal office setting but may be required to make site visits to the field as assigned for auditing purposes.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL
None.

OTHER SIGNIFICANT FACTS
This position is covered under a collective bargaining agreement represented by local AFGE 631. This position is a 13 month term appointment with a not-to-exceed (NTE) date. THIS POSITION REQUIRES A PRE-EMPLOYMENT CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK.