Community Presbyterian Church, Pittsburg
Sharing Ministry with
First Congregational Church of Antioch

April 2018, Issue 4

From the CPC Pastor

From the FCCA Pastor

Dear Friends,

As I write this, I've just returned from the early morning rally outside the elementary school in Alamo where the Westboro Hate Group came to protest. It wasn't exactly clear why they chose this particular school to protest, the Tuesday after the Sunday where they spent a half an hour in front of four congregations in Walnut Creek, except that a Fox News blog targeted the school in January for having a bulletin board with information supportive of the Transgender community. I learned separately that the school has done their best to follow the wishes of the parents of a young child in transition, and that the bulletin board shared some information on differing gender identities and expressions as sign of support and education for other students and parents.

Earlier this weekend, the flag at Clayton Valley Presbyterian was vandalized once more. Sadly, our partners in ministry there have become used to such occurrences, though it hasn't happened in some time. Perhaps they used the donation we gave them last year to have one on hand to replace it as quickly as they did.

On my way to lunch today, I drove in front of our church and noticed that someone has cut out the rainbow comma's on the FCCA banners on Leland Rd. Apparently the banners and comma's have been torn out for a while now, with Bill Dexheimer reattaching them from time to time. Even the rainbow comma on the sign in front of the church has been broken off of that sign in the last few months as well.

Sometimes its not easy to stand up for what you believe in – and continuing to do so peacefully. (Why we can't keep people's hands off of our church signs is another conversation.) Perhaps its just the cost of standing in solidarity with those whom have been targeted by the church itself for so long, but it is clear that when hate comes to town, it gives cover for others

Happy Easter!

Freedom is coming.
Freedom is coming.

Freedom from fear....
freedom from the fear of death.

"Perfect love casts out fear."

Easter celebrates that perfect love...a love that is stronger than death.

We hear again the ancient words, "Death where is thy victory. Death where is thy sting?" Nothing in life or in death will be able to separate us from the love of God.

Easter is a celebration of that love...that steadfast, reliable, powerful love of God revealed through Jesus' death and resurrection.

Life and love will not be defeated.

My father died a little over a month ago. He is no longer alive. And yet the connection to him continues to be strong. The love that connected us while he was alive, connects us still. It is different now. I can't hug him or speak to him or worry about whether or not he will fall out of his wheelchair again. All of that is over.

And yet I feel the support of his love even after his death. Something profound continues to connect us.

The web of life that sustains us includes those who have died. Support, love and understanding come to us from those who have gone before us in death. We are of the same substance...love....which does not end. The veil between the worlds of life and death is very thin.

to do the same thing.

Insisting that all people, gay and straight, brown and white, and those of every gender identity and expression are included in the imago Dei, the image of God, can sometimes raise the ire of those who would insist that only their tribe or definition of acceptable humanity are included in God's kin-dom of welcome and love. But we will continue to "Stand on the side of love" as our song reminds us. It's important for faith communities to stand up to such idolatry, hate and vandalism by continuing to live out the expansive love a God that continues to break down every barrier between us.

Sometimes it's as easy as showing up to a rally, but other times it asks us to speak up even with those we love, challenging off the cuff remarks that belittle others. If it's not good news for everybody, it's not good news for anybody. The love of God is always beyond our imagination, and welcomes us to greater feats of love, service and care for a hurting world. Let us continue to share this vast grace and love until the world is filled with the harmony of the kin-dom where everyone belongs.

Together we serve,

Pastor Will

Easter 2018

Pastor Christy continues...

Can we know this in our lives? Can we trust this mystery of our faith? We are supported by a love that is eternal. A love that will not be destroyed by death or aging or dementia or sorrow of grief. Love withstands all of that. It survives in the face of death. Death cannot kill it. That is what we celebrate at Easter as we proclaim the risen Christ.

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ is alive forevermore.

When we know this to be true, our lives are forever changed.

Our priorities shift. Our capacity to serve grows. Our commitment to inclusivity and tolerance grows. Our awareness of oppression grows. Our willingness to work for justice grows. We are transformed by this love as it moves through our hearts and minds.

Happy Easter. Celebrate the gift of life that does not end. Celebrate the gift of love that is not destroyed by death.

This is much to celebrate!

Easter Blessings,

Christy

RECIPE CORNER

Pasta Primavera

Ingredients

3 carrots, peeled and cut into thin strips
2 medium zucchini or 1 large zucchini, cut into thin strips
2 yellow squash, cut into thin strips
1 onion, thinly sliced
1 yellow bell pepper, cut into thin strips
1 red bell pepper, cut into thin strips
1/4 cup olive oil
Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
1 tablespoon dried Italian herbs or herbes de Provence
1 pound farfalle (bowtie pasta)
15 cherry tomatoes, halved
1/2 cup grated Parmesan

Directions

Preheat the oven to 450 degrees F.

On a large heavy baking sheet, toss all of the vegetables with the oil, salt, pepper, and dried herbs to coat. Transfer half of the vegetable mixture to another heavy large baking sheet and arrange evenly over the baking sheets. Bake until the carrots are tender and the vegetables begin to brown, stirring after the first 10 minutes, about 20 minutes total.

Meanwhile, cook the pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water until al dente, tender but still firm to the bite, about 8 minutes. Drain, reserving 1 cup of the cooking liquid.

Toss the pasta with the vegetable mixtures in a large bowl to combine. Toss with the cherry tomatoes and enough reserved cooking liquid to moisten. Season the pasta with salt and pepper, to taste. Sprinkle with the Parmesan and serve immediately.

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES

A NATIONAL CALL for MORAL REVIVAL

1. We are rooted in a moral analysis based on our deepest religious and constitutional values that demand justice for all. Moral revival is necessary to save the heart and soul of our democracy.
2. We are committed to lifting up and deepening the leadership of those most affected by systemic racism, poverty, the war economy, and ecological devastation and to building unity across lines of division.
3. We believe in the dismantling of unjust criminalization systems that exploit poor communities and communities of color and the transformation of the "War Economy" into a "Peace Economy" that values all humanity.
4. We believe that equal protection under the law is non-negotiable.
5. We believe that people should not live in or die from poverty in the richest nation ever to exist. Blaming the poor and claiming that the United States does not have an abundance of resources to overcome poverty are false narratives used to perpetuate economic exploitation, exclusion, and deep inequality.
6. We recognize the centrality of systemic racism in maintaining economic oppression must be named, detailed and exposed empirically, morally and spiritually. Poverty and economic inequality cannot be understood apart from a society built on white supremacy.
7. We aim to shift the distorted moral narrative often promoted by religious extremists in the nation from issues like prayer in school, abortion, and gun rights to one that is concerned with how our society treats the poor, those on the margins, the least of these, women, LGBTQIA folks, workers, immigrants, the disabled and the sick; equality and representation under the law; and the desire for peace, love and harmony within and among nations.
8. We will build up the power of people and state-based movements to serve as a vehicle for a powerful moral movement in the country and to transform the political, economic and moral structures of our society.
9. We recognize the need to organize at the state and local level—many of the most regressive policies are being passed at the state level, and these policies will have long and lasting effect, past even executive orders. The movement is not from above but below.
10. We will do our work in a non-partisan way—no elected officials or candidates get the stage or serve on the State Organizing Committee of the Campaign. This is not about left and right, Democrat or Republican but about right and wrong.
11. We uphold the need to do a season of sustained moral direct action as a way to break through the tweets and shift the moral narrative. We are demonstrating the power of people coming together across issues and geography and putting our bodies on the line to the issues that are affecting us all.
