*Luke 15Living in Mercy

Lost sheep. Lost coin. Lost child. Losing a possession is one thing. Losing one's way is something else. (1) The people of Exodus so lost their way to God, they turned to a molten calf of their own design. Worshiping something that is not God is idolatry, is deep down infidelity, is mistrust of God. Moses pleads for these stiff-necked people. And God relents: God does not punish. (2) The prodigal son thought owning things and going far off was the way to live. He comes to his senses and returns home and finds his father—filled with compassion—running to embrace him. The point: it is God's very nature to relent, to exude compassion, to run to us, to love.

- How can I be like God today?
- For whom will I plead today?
- Whom will I run to embrace

Prepare for next week: Read and reflect on the Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time (beginning on pg. 373) in the "Living Liturgy" missal.

FR. CHRIS ROUECH
frchris@spxcatholic.org

CHOSEN BY CHRIST & choosing to...

"I Will Choose Christ" is one of my favorite contemporary hymns. But if you sing only the refrain of that song, you miss half the story. Long before you chose Christ, he chose you.

Think about that. If you have any affection, predilection or connection with Jesus Christ, it's because God willed it so. If you were baptized as a baby, you can thank your parents for that—but it was because you had been chosen beforehand by Jesus Christ.

"It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to bear fruit that will remain..." Jesus tells us in John 15:16.

I feel that's an important tenant of our faith to consider as we enter the final quarter of 2016. Each one of us has been personally chosen by Christ. But God respects us so much that he does not take away our freedom to ignore or reject his call.

Probably the biggest challenge we face is making Christ-centered choices with our time, our families, our money and our minds; our Saturday nights and Sunday mornings...

All this leads to our theme for this fall: Chosen by Christ & choosing to
_____. How will you fill in that blank, O chosen one?

*"How many times must he call my name, and show to me that he is God?
 And as a servant he calls to me,
 "You must serve too."
[I WILL CHOOSE CHRIST. © 1991. TOM BOOTH,
 SPIRIT & SONG, A DIVISION OF OCP](http://I WILL CHOOSE CHRIST. © 1991. TOM BOOTH, SPIRIT & SONG, A DIVISION OF OCP)*

One more thought: Honestly, some days I have to begin by simply choosing to believe that Jesus Christ is God and that I am chosen. And then I keep choosing to practice being a faithful Roman Catholic.

PARISH UPDATE: What you might have missed while away

► Our Lord's Day Masses have us accompanying Jesus to Jerusalem, a journey that began way back in June. Each Sunday, we hear passages from the Gospel of Luke, chapters 9-21. These teachings are challenging and perplexing. They are also steeped in God's rich mercy.

Perhaps that's what Pope Francis had in mind when he proclaimed this to be an Extraordinary Year of Mercy. Which is why we are beginning and concluding the Rite of Holy Communion with the "Hymn for the Holy Year of Mercy." Let's hope everyone will take those Latin words to heart: "Be merciful as your heavenly Father! Be merciful as your heavenly Father! His mercy is everlasting."

► Facility Improvement Plan — The proposed project is moving forward, albeit slowly. Prospective construction management firms and capital campaign consultants have each been interviewed by representatives from the Pastoral Council, Finance Council and Campus and Facilities Master Planning Committee. The next step is making the final selections and get approval from the Grand Rapids Diocese to hire.

After that, further plan development and publicity can begin in earnest. A downsized concept calls for a youth and multipurpose center in the courtyard between the Religious Education Center and Parish Center (old church). This addition would flow into an expanded Gathering Area adjacent to the church entrances, putting our youth near all the facilities they use and creating a hub for the various wings of our building.

We know parishioners have lots of questions and a town hall meeting will be held when all ducks are in a row. A big part of the $3 million plan is replacing our parking lots and boilers. Our aging infrastructure cost us $18,750 this spring when the air conditioning unit for Danner Hall had to be replaced.

► If you haven't done so, please welcome our newest staff members:

ROSEMARY BEAHAN is our Pastoral Associate for Pastoral Care, Outreach and Christian Initiation. She returns to Grand Rapids after 16 years in south Florida.

ASHLEY ROTTMAN is our new Coordinator of Youth Ministry. Ashley most recently worked as development director for the local Boy Scout Council. Rosemary and Ashley have both fit in so naturally here that we long timers risk forgetting they are new and need extra support. Your help is appreciated.

Growing in Christ
Weekly Stewardship Report

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: Among the primary themes in today's gospel when we hear Jesus' well-known parable of the Prodigal Son is forgiveness and the need to repent. But from a stewardship point of view what is also interesting is one of the secondary themes; the failure to use responsibly the gifts that have been so generously bestowed. The youngest son who demanded his inheritance and left home, broke no laws or religious commandments. His wrongdoing was that he wasted his inherited wealth, the abundant gifts given to him. His sin was in his extravagant living; squandering his gifts in pursuit of selfish pleasure. Good stewards acknowledge that everything they have comes from God, and they are required to cultivate these gifts responsibly. What are our God-given gifts? Do we use them responsibly? Do we exercise good stewardship over them? Sept. 2016 ICSC Catholic Stewardship e-bulletin

ST. TERESA OF CALCUTTA

*Born: Aug. 26, 1910
Founded her Order: Oct. 7, 1950
Died: Sept. 5, 1997
Beatified: Oct. 19, 2003
Canonized: Sept. 4, 2016*

*O Living God
who uses the weak to lead the strong,
who casts down the mighty
and lifts up the lowly,
the Church rejoices at the canonization of Holy Mother Teresa of Calcutta.*

*By her humble service
to the Poorest of the Poor,
and staunch defense
of unborn human life,
she became a bastion
for the culture of life.*

*We ask, O Lord,
that her heavenly intercession
and earthly example continue to bless the world, now and forever. Amen.*

A PRAYER FOR THE ANNIVERSARY OF 9/11

O God, our hope and refuge,
In our distress we come quickly to you.
Shock and horror of that tragic day have subsided,
Replaced now with an emptiness,
A longing for an innocence lost.

We come remembering those who lost their lives
In New York, Washington D.C., and Pennsylvania.

We are mindful of the sacrifice of public servants
Who demonstrated the greatest love of all
By laying down their lives for friends.
We commit their souls to your eternal care
And celebrate their gifts to a fallen humanity.

We come remembering
And we come in hope,
Not in ourselves, but in you.

As foundations we once thought secure have been shaken,
we are reminded of the illusion of security.

In commemorating this tragedy,
We give you thanks for your presence
In our time of need
And we seek to worship you in Spirit and in truth. Amen
By Rev. Jeremy Pridgeon
