REAL PEOPLE + REAL PRESENCE

... a welcoming Roman Catholic family of God
empowered by the Holy Spirit to grow our relationship with Jesus Christ and with one another as we worship, pray, learn and serve.

Living in Mercy

Who am I kidding? If I would do all the right things for the wrong reasons, would they still count? Probably not. Would God care? Most likely, yes! The Gospel paints this picture. The boasting person at prayer: I fast, I pray, I tithe, I am faithful—I am not like “him” ... (and everyone see this about me). But the humble one prays: I am far from perfect, I sin—be full of mercy. The Old Testament reading sheds more light. Be like God, Sirach says. Attend to the poor, the widow, the orphan (anyone in need), God says. Look to them. Care for them. It is right and just behavior.

- How will I boast, not in myself, but in the Lord?
- How will I behave? Whom will I help?

Prepare for next week: Read and reflect on the Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time (beginning on pg. 401) in the “Living Liturgy” missal.

Some timely & important things to know if you are practicing the Catholic Faith at St. Pius X Parish

THE SACRAMENT OF THE SICK WILL BE OFFERED AT ALL MASSES NEXT WEEKEND

— This is not a "come one, come all" sacrament. This powerful appeal to Christ our physician is intended for Catholic-Christians whose lives are at risk due to advanced age or terminal illness, and those who suffer from chronic pain or physical or mental illness. It is also for people anticipating surgery.

This is the fourth year we have offered this healing sacrament at our Lord's Day Masses for two reasons: 1. Winter is coming and we know parishioners who are struggling with health issues. 2. So that others can experience this sacrament, pray for the sick, and be aware of this uniquely Catholic sign of Christ's healing presence.

The entire congregation will pray as those who seek the sacraments are anointed on their foreheads and the palms of their hands with the Oil of the Sick. This balm is one of three holy oils used by the Church. It is pure olive oil, blessed by Bishop David Walkowiak at the Chrism Mass on Holy Tuesday.

A TASTY HOT BREAKFAST WILL BE SERVED AFTER BOTH SUNDAY MASSES NEXT WEEKEND

— This free breakfast is a long tradition at St. Pius X. Served by the men and boys of the parish, it's a great community-builder when diners make an effort to reach out to others. And it illustrates in a delicious way the fruits of parishioners who tithe.

Many churches serve breakfast to raise money. At St. Pius, it's an expression of gratitude and a sign of what's possible when we sacrifice together for the good of our parish.

Like the breakfast, there is no charge; no fees for funeral luncheons, religious education sessions, weddings and other ministries we do together at St. Pius X. We simply ask that our members try their best to tithe 5 percent of their income to the parish in their offering at Mass. Some generous souls give even more.

WE LOVE TO HAVE CHILDREN AT MASS!

— It's good for them to experience liturgy. Admittedly, some people might get feisty when little tykes are noisy, but that's because these folks need a little practice with patience and gratitude and you are providing it for them a visceral way.

That said, nursery is provided at 10:30am Mass for children up to age three. Sunday preschool for ages three through kindergarten is offered when religious education is in session. One couple I know has decided to bring their two toddlers to Mass every other week, and take advantage of the nursery the other weeks.

Also, the vestibule of the church is intended specifically for people with special needs and for parents who need a quieting time with their children.

DID SOMEONE YOU LOVE DIE IN THE PAST YEAR?

A Special Mass of Remembrance will be celebrated at 11am Saturday, Nov. 5. Invitations have been mailed to the families of people who were buried from St. Pius X in the past year. The names of these individuals will also be inscribed on a banner that will be displayed in church for the month of November.

Everyone is welcome at this Mass! But we'd like to extend a special invitation to anyone who had a loved one die since last Oct. 1. You will be invited to bring to that Mass a framed photograph of the person who has passed on and to participate in the opening procession, if you'd like.

Lunch will also be served for those who have suffered such a loss—but you need to RSVP by calling the parish office or email parishoffice@spxcatholic.org

THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS IS TUESDAY, NOV. 1

— This a Holy Day of Obligation, meaning it's an especially important feast for believers. We will have Mass at Noon and 7pm that day.

EVERYDAY STEWARD CHARACTERISTIC ~ Grateful

Nothing sums up this characteristic of an everyday steward than: Attitude of Gratitude. Everyday stewards recognize everything as gifts from God, from their homes, families, jobs, friends, possessions, their life, even their communities are all gifts from God. Because they recognize this, they can't help, but be grateful! So much so, they need to find ways to respond. Their gratitude is expressed through their daily actions. Everyday stewards give, share, offer, pray, serve, worship and live in ways that express their gratitude and allow God to work through them. How can you be more grateful for the blessings you receive every day? Andy Rebollar, Pastoral Associate for Parish Life

Visit spxcatholic.org to read about everyday steward, Mike Provost, and his story about how he incorporates gratefulness in his life.
