Living in Mercy

Hard but clear words today. Jesus tells his beloved "little flocks"—that includes us—to sell belongings and give alms. Do not be afraid. Sell. Give. Yet, we are sometimes afraid to let go, to give away. I really like this, we say. I might need it later, we say. Since we are numbered among his disciples, what Jesus said to Peter and to the rest of the followers, he says to us:

- Do not fear!
- Give alms!
- Be ready to act for the benefit of others; be ready to do what is good!
- So, this week, I will _____!

Prepare for next week: Read and reflect on the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (beginning on pg. 340) in the "Living Liturgy" missal.

frchris@spxcatholic.orgTHE DELIGHTFUL DOG DAYS OF SUMMER*LOOKING AHEAD

A warm welcome to Ashley Rottman, who begins Monday as our new Coordinator of Youth Ministry.

Ashley

Sadly for us, Merry Hass and her family intend to move to Portland. I will miss Merry's integrity, prayerfulness and hard work in service to our community through the years, most recently as youth minister. Indeed, our parish has been enhanced by the talent and dedication of the entire Brian & Merry Hass clan, especially Courtney, Brandon and Lexi who were integral to our youth ministry. Blessings to you all during this transition.

Read Merry's goodbye on page three.

Next weekend, worshippers at St. Pius X will hear about the sacred work of the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament.

Fr. Peter

Father Peter Dorairaj, SSS, will be the main celebrant at the Lord's Day Masses and preach about his religious order's efforts to share the Eucharist in 28 diverse countries, such as Sri Lanka, Puerto Rico and Vietnam. I hope you will give generously to the work of these missionaries. An envelope and flier are in this bulletin.

Father Peter's visit is part of the "Missionary Cooperative Plan" through the diocesan Missions Office and the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith in Rome. Every two years the parishes in our diocese host an overseas missionary, so we who are so rich can assist the poor.

I will be on summer vacation. No daily Mass on Wednesday or Friday.

Facility Improvement Plan Update:

Later this month, the Campus and Facilities Planning Committee will interview three construction companies. This is so we can get a construction manager (CM) on board to partner with us in working with the architects at Progressive AE. This is a standard procedure for projects such as this. Msgr. Bill Duncan at St. Sebastian Parish in Byron Center said they benefitted greatly from having a CM assist with value engineering.

Based on feedback received from parishioners last spring, plans are being scaled back. The latest prototype features a new Youth Area in the courtyard between the Parish Center and Religious Education Center. We haven't invested in sketches for you yet because we need a construction manager's input to ensure we can afford what the architects propose.

LOOKING BACK

OMG! And I mean it: Oh my God! Last month, I was blessed with an extraordinarily poignant experience at the parish where I celebrated my first three sacraments: St. Norbert's in Munger (near Bay City).

As part of their "Camp Edge" pilgrimage, our 7th and 8th graders and chaperones prayed with me in the sanctuary of this cruciform building, which has changed little.

My godparents were there, along with my mom. (My dad was home nursing his knee.)

Only God knew that when I was baptized on June 2, 1963, 53 years later I would be on that same land sharing my faith story with adolescents from Grandville. We even re-created the group photo from my First Holy Communion! (The kids noticed I was the only boy in that picture who smiled.)

Unfortunately, St. Norbert's is now an "occasional use" site, as part of the new parish of St. Jude Thaddeus in Essexville. See page 5 for more photos of Camp Edge.

High School Youth Ministry

MERRY HASS
mhass@spxcatholic.org

A GOODBYE from MERRY HASS

Life's changes... For everything there is a season. I feel it is now time to write my farewell letter to my home parish for the past 21 years. God has plans for our family that were just revealed to us in mid-June.

See, God has always instructed me as to where he wanted me to go in life. At about age 24, I started listening more closely to his prompting. He has let me know when it is time to start something new and time to move on (not always revealing what is around the corner for me).

I have always listened to his prompting and acted without hesitation. That is until this past January. I felt him asking me to step down as Coordinator of Youth Ministry at St. Pius X. I argued with God this time! I admitted I was arguing and didn't want to follow his call. I sought spiritual direction and just as I would get up the nerve to give my notice, I would see even just one of the high school teens that I love so much, and I couldn't do it.

I truly love the teens of this parish. I love planning events for them and watching them grow in their faith, serve their community and build relationships. After much prayer and time, I did trust God and I knew he had plans for me. Plans to prosper me and not harm me. Plans of hope and for a future. Well, I now see his plans unfolding quickly.

Brian and I have sold our house and are moving to Portland, MI at the end of August. Lexi, Moriah and Naomi will all go to St. Patrick Catholic School there. We have an offer in on 3.5 acres with a barn and huge garage. Oh, and the land comes with a farm house. I am at peace with this transition in our lives.

I am praying for Ashley Rottman, your new Youth Minister. I pray that she is completely loved, accepted and supported. I pray for these incredible teens that will forever and ever have a piece of my heart.

Thanks for all you have given me. God Bless You. St. Pius X....PRAY FOR US. I would like to extend a huge THANK YOU to all the adults and young adults that make this Ministry what it is. I could not have done these past two years with you.

Merry Hass & Brittany Kline

Note: Due to construction preparation at St. Sebastian, today's Volleyball Tournament (Aug. 7) has been cancelled.

Growing in Christ Weekly Stewardship Report

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: In today's Gospel reading, Jesus concludes his teaching about those who are "faithful and prudent stewards" with that classic stewardship teaching: "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." Christian stewards recognize that God is the ultimate source of their gifts, talents, resources and aptitudes, and that God wants them to use these varied gifts in his service. This week might be a good time to reflect on our God-given gifts. Are we using those gifts to service the Lord? If Christ came back to us unexpectedly tomorrow would we be able to give a full accounting of how we have exercised stewardship over these gifts? — August 2016 ICSC Catholic Stewardship e-bulletin

MASS ATTENDANCE

July 30 & 31: 5:30pm— 261 | 8:30am—246 | 10:30am—373

ST. PIUS X CHURCH: Thank you so very much for all you did to help our group be able to enjoy the parade on the 4th of July. Bringing a group of special needs individuals to a crowded public event can be extremely challenging. Your assistance and hospitality has made the 4th of July parade a pleasure for the residents and staff of Harbor House Ministries. The residents enjoy special events and because of you, they were able to be front and center to fully enjoy it! The staff raved about how amazing you were to us and are so thankful for your kindness! You have blessed us greatly. Thank you for providing such a welcoming ministry. Marcelle Walburg, Home Manager & the staff and residents at Harbor House Ministries

BACK TO SCHOOL SUPPLIES: It's that time of year again. Take advantage of the sales! Supplies can be put in the food bin in the vestibule. We need items by Aug. 21 so they can be delivered before school starts. Thank you for helping those in need!

CONGREGATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Our Mission is Clear: Eucharist is Our Life... Blessed Sacrament Religious share a common mission: to allow the mystery of the Eucharist to take hold of their lives so completely that they will live this mystery fully and proclaim its meaning through many diverse apostolates and reach out to mission lands throughout the world. They are active in the ecumenical movement and focus on having the Eucharist be a sacrament of unity. Bringing communion to the sick and shut-ins, especially in the hospital ministry. They offer hospitality and minister to priests and religious. In all they do, Christ in the Eucharist is their inspiration and the center of their personal and community life. We welcome the Blessed Sacrament Religious next weekend (Aug. 13 & 14). Your prayerful support of the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament will help continue to make Christ in the Eucharist better known and loved.
