REAL PEOPLE + REAL PRESENCE

... a welcoming Roman Catholic family of God
empowered by the Holy Spirit to grow our relationship with Jesus Christ and with one another as we worship, pray, learn and serve.

Practicing Faith

So dead! Some people do everything possible, and then some more, to stay alive. Some fear death. If we think ritually, we can be dead because of sin. We should fear that. But grace is stronger than sin. God's life is stronger than death. In fact, Christians cherish death because it is entrance from this life to life anew; it is entrance from this home to our eternal home. This death we should not fear.

- What life do I really need?
- What behaviors must I avoid?
- What mercy work can I do to comfort the dying, to pray for the dead?

Prepare for Sunday: Read and reflect on Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion (beginning on pg. 164) in the "Living Liturgy" missal.

Many families have been planning for Spring Break, and I hope they are finally enjoying the fruits of their efforts.

For five weeks now, we have been preparing spiritually to celebrate our break from endless sin and death—our Father's gift to us through the death and resurrection of his son.

Holy Week begins next Sunday.

I am tempted to say that like most things in life, you will get out of Holy Week what you put into it. In many ways that is true. But when it comes to liturgy, all you need to do is show up with an open heart and a willingness to participate fully—even if you feel uncomfortable.

PALM SUNDAY is our annual celebration of Jesus' triumphant entrance in Jerusalem and a shaming reminder of how fickle we are. Only days after cheering Jesus as Messiah, people are screaming "crucify him." We haven't changed much, have we?

At St. Pius X, all three Masses start with the blessing of palm leaves. The 10:30am Mass begins in Danner Hall with a procession into the church. If you are physically able, I challenge you to take a big risk: instead of reserving your pews in church beforehand, go directly to Danner Hall. Follow the procession and see where you end up. I've learned over the years that this is very, very difficult for people who like to be in control. (Believe me, I can relate. But practicing surrender will change your life!)

The main liturgy of the week is known as the TRIDUUM. [Pronounced "tridge-you-um"]. Triduum is Latin for "three days," counting from sundown on Holy Thursday to sundown on Easter Sunday. Triduum is like a Catholic-Christian Homecoming, our big annual gathering of shared faith and love for Jesus Christ.

But until next Sunday, it's still Lent. Even if you haven't put a bit of effort into Lent, it's not too late to start doing a bit of abstaining, giving and praying. You will get out of it far more than you put into it—but only if your heart is as open to God as Christ's heart is as open to yours.

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL — If you haven't already made your gift or pledge to this important campaign to support the works of the Diocese of Grand Rapids, could you do so soon?

REMEMBER, JESUS WAS A JEW —

Parish children in grades 1-6 might know more about the ancient roots of the Catholic Mass than many adults. That's because for about four years now, children in our Religious Education program participate in a modified Seder Meal. This is the meal that Jewish families celebrate at Passover. This is the meal that was transformed by Jesus at the Last Supper when he washed feet and said the bread is his body and the wine is his blood. A special thank you to all our catechists, especially Joell Snidanko, who did much of the organizing, Glenda Trytko, our religious education coordinator, and Elizabeth Post, our faith formation director who brought this tradition to St. Pius X.

Pastoral Care, Outreach & Initiation

ROSEMARY BEAHAN
rbeahan@spxcatholic.org

Are you an "unconfirmed" Catholic? If you are a practicing Catholic but have not received the sacrament of Confirmation, you are not "fully initiated." The Sacrament of Confirmation completes our initiation into the Roman Catholic Church and equips us with the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

So what are you waiting for? We're beginning a three-week series 7-9pm Mondays on May 1, 8 & 15. Confirmation will be celebrated at the Cathedral of St. Andrew at 7pm May 23. Please contact me via email or 532-9344, ext. 106 if you are interested in becoming a "CONFIRMED CATHOLIC."

HAVE YOU BEEN ATTENDING MASS but aren't Catholic?

Do you know anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and possibly becoming Roman Catholic? We are here for you! RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a journey whereby an individual becomes a full member of the Catholic Church. Those making this journey come from a variety of backgrounds: some are baptized, some are not; some come from other Christian churches or religious beliefs. Whatever the situation, all are experiencing the call of Jesus Christ and share a common spiritual journey. Another Catholic Inquiry series begins in June. Please contact me if you are interested.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY will meet Monday, April 3 at 5:30pm in the McDuffee Room. If you knit or crochet, and would like to be part of this worthwhile ministry, come and join us. Beginners and those who wish to learn are welcome!

JOURNEY THROUGH GRIEF: This is a support group for those who have suffered a loss and will deal with the myths and realities of grief along with providing support. This group is open to the community at large so if you or someone you know is grieving the loss of a loved one, join us for five consecutive Thursdays beginning, April 20—May 18 from 7-8:30pm, in the Parish Center Lower Level Room #1. You are welcome to bring a guest. If you are interested, please contact me via email or call 532-9344 x106.

NON-PROM SLEEPOVER ~ April 22 at 8pm to April 23 after the 8:30am Mass: Not old enough to go to prom? Or maybe prom isn't for you! Either way, all high school teens are welcome at the Non-Prom Sleepover for movies, snacks, games, karaoke, and general shenanigans. This is just a fun opportunity to hang out with your St. Pius X family. Permission slips and registration can be found online.

Growing in Christ

Weekly Stewardship Report

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: Jesus called to his friend from the dead, "Lazarus, come out!" It is the same call our Lord makes to us unceasingly: "Come out!" Jesus calls us from our tomb of doubt and unbelief, from the darkness of our fear and anxieties; from the depths of our weaknesses and lack of hope. Christian stewards pray for an open heart, so that they may hear the voice of the Lord, heed the continuous call to come away from their former way of living and reprioritize their lives in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Do we believe Christ has the power to transform our lives? Do we take time to listen for his call? from the April 2017 ICSC Catholic Stewardship e-Bulletin.

THE THIRD SCRUTINY ~ What is it?

This weekend at the 5:30pm Mass, we celebrate the Third Scrutiny for the Elect to be baptized, and offer special prayers for the Candidates already baptized and preparing for full initiation into the Catholic Faith at the Easter Vigil. During the Scrutinies, we are called to soul searching, repentance, and healing. The Scrutinies affect all of us present at this Liturgy. The series of three Scrutinies are not for finger-pointing, but to uncover what is weak, defective, sinful; and to bring out and strengthen what is upright, strong and good. This weekend, we hear the Gospel story of Lazarus, which reminds us of our own dying and rising with Christ, through the waters of Baptism. We celebrate this Third Scrutiny to help bring out a sense of purification and enlightenment in Christ, who offers us new life.
