REAL PEOPLE + REAL PRESENCE

PRAYER BEFORE AN ELECTION

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

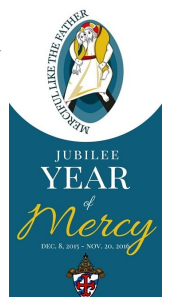

~ UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

Living in Mercy

No game-playing. In today's first reading, the Maccabees are clear: even death by torture is not feared because life in heaven is next. In the Gospel, the Sadducees—in trying to choose sides—discover: who is married to whom in heaven is not a central question. Being in heaven is the central answer. With the love and hope and grace—all good gifts from God, St Paul tells us today—we await heaven. Not by playing games. But by good works and good words.

- What words of mercy can I speak?
- What works of mercy will I do?

Prepare for next week: Read and reflect on the Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time (beginning on pg. 416) in the "Living Liturgy" missal.

The View from 40th & Wilson

FR. CHRIS ROUECH
frchris@spxcatholic.org

Skip a meal or two on Tuesday?

I know a devout Catholic who is so concerned about the Election that she intends to fast and pray that day.

Given our choices for U.S. president and the vitriolic campaigns, I might do the same.

In the Book of Jonah, the reluctant prophet warns the people that God will destroy their city if they do not repent. The people respond by fasting and donning themselves in sack cloth. The Lord hears their pleas and relents.

I in no way intend to imply that God is punishing our country. But the call to fast teaches deep spiritual realities. First, by choosing to go hungry, I express a willingness to give rather than get. Second, fasting humbles us and unites us with other people who feel powerless.

Fasting and praying on Election Day might move God, but just as significantly it humbles us to trust in him, whoever is chosen to serve as the next President of the United States. And we must continue to behave as disciples of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace and Redeemer of the World.

Mass will be in church at 8:30 am Tuesday. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will continue throughout the day.

Whether you fast or not, I encourage you to please pray the prayer on the front of this bulletin.

In November we remember the faithful departed.

Catholics are encouraged to visit cemeteries to prepare graves for the winter, and to pray especially for the dead. This expresses our belief that we are part of one community of saints—in heaven, on the way to heaven, and here on earth.

If someone you loved has died this past year, please bring a framed photograph to church for placement in our memorial shrine.

*Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
 And let perpetual light shine upon them.
 May they rest in peace. Amen
 May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
 Amen.*

NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEKWhat do you want to be when you grow up? What do you think God wants you to be?

Today begins National Vocations Awareness Week. Aims for the week include praying for vocations to priesthood and religious life and helping parents teach their children to remain open to God's call.

After Mass today, have a conversation with your children by first asking, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" After a few moments of discussion, ask, "Who do you think God wants you to be when you grow up?" Emphasize to your children that God has a specific plan in mind for them, and that following God's plan is the surest way to happiness.

Every life decision—which college or trade school to attend, whom to date, which job to pursue, whether to enter seminary, whom to marry — should be undertaken only after praying for God's guidance. In other words, encourage your children to navigate life using GPS — God's Positioning System. And this

GPS can only be activated through prayer. Prayer is the means by which God helps us to navigate life's many options. Seeking God's guidance via prayer is the way we live out the Christian disciples desire to do God's will in all things.

Another way to promote this approach with your children would be to pray the following prayer after grace or as part of your child's nighttime prayers: "God, help me to be who You want me to be. Let it be done to me according to Your word. AMEN."

Babette's Feast Movie & Discussion

In a remote 19th-century Danish village, two sisters lead a rigid life centered around their father, the local minister, and their church. Both had opportunities to leave the village: one could have married a young army officer and the other, a French opera singer. Their father objected in each case, and they spent their lives caring for him. Many years later - their father is now deceased - they take in French refugee, Babette Hersant, who agrees to work as their servant. After winning the lottery, Babette wants to repay the sisters for their kindness and offers to cook a French meal for them and their friends on the 100th anniversary of their father's birth. It proves to be an eye-opening experience for everyone.

EVERYDAY STEWARD CHARACTERISTIC Commitment

Chances are if you ask any married couple, “does your commitment to your spouse look different today than it did when you first married?”, the answer will overwhelmingly be yes. I know this is true for my marriage with Andi and it makes sense. As we grow as people, making our way through the ups and downs of life, our experiences change us, giving us a deeper understanding of who we are and what being committed means. This should hold true in our faith as well. To grow as an everyday steward and grow as a follower of Christ, our level of commitment needs to grow as well. How might God be inviting you to grow by adjusting one of your stewardship commitments? Andy Rebollar, Pastoral Associate for Parish Life.

Visit spxcatholic.org to read about everyday stewards, Dave and Lynn Zabler, and their story about being committed not only to each other, but committed to a life of service.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE FOOD PANTRY ~ THANKSGIVING

The Food Pantry will deliver baskets to those in need for Thanksgiving. Please remember them when you do your holiday shopping.

A SPECIAL THANKS TO SHOPPERS AT GRANDVILLE

FAMILY FARE for their donations to “ending hunger in our community.” Spartan Nash selected our parish to benefit from this outreach and gave St. Pius X Food Pantry a check for $2,300. God bless all who made donations at the check-outs at the store in Grandville.

THE AROMA OF A DELICIOUS BREAKFAST IS GONE;

GRATITUDE REMAINS: Thank you to the great team of men in the kitchen and dining hall who served over 470 people last Sunday. A special thanks to Ed Krzeminski, Paul Pietrzak and Andrew Kovac who coordinated it all. Our next parish breakfast will be in the spring.

LONG TIME PARISHIONER, Tom Bernott, is looking for someone to sit with his wife (who suffered a brain injury), one Sunday morning per month, while Tom goes to Mass. Time needed would be 8:10-10:30am. Contact Rosemary at 532-9344 if you can help.

SHHH!!! Do you hear God calling you to be a servant? We are looking for a few people to serve in the Funeral Ministry. You would help grieving families by providing an occasional salad or a dessert for the funeral luncheons. This gives the family an opportunity to meet and relax with other family members and share a meal following their loved one's funeral Mass. Men and women, young and old, are also needed to help serve the luncheons. You do not need to be available for every funeral. We schedule workers around their schedules. Please contact Rosemary at 532-9344 or rbeahan@spxcatholic.org. Won't you answer God's call?

will be taken up this weekend. The AMS relies solely on private donors in support of its mission, “Serving those who serve” and its ministry to provide the same pastoral care and services to Catholics serving in the United States Armed Forces. It is imperative that the Catholic faithful who defend our religious freedom do not have to sacrifice theirs. To learn more about the AMS ministry go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection. Envelopes will be available from the ushers this weekend at church.
