REAL PEOPLE + REAL PRESENCE

... a welcoming Roman Catholic family of God
 empowered by the Holy Spirit to grow our relationship with Jesus Christ and with one another as we worship, pray, learn and serve.

Practicing Faith

We cannot avoid mercy! Right in the middle of the nine "Blesseds," at the start of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus says: Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Mercy! Right in the middle. Yet mercy is preceded and followed by blessed righteousness, that is, by relationships that are right with God, with other people, and with all creation.

- How will I seek justice by what I do today?
- How will I see humility by what I say this week?
- How will I show mercy, be merciful?

Prepare for Sunday: Read and reflect on The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time (beginning on pg. 107) in the "Living Liturgy" missal.

SOME WINTER NOTES

■ Sr. Luvia Joseph will be in the United States early next month to celebrate her birthday and the 40th Anniversary of her religious vows. If you would like to send a card, please get it to the parish office by Feb. 1. Although Sr. Luvia has taken a vow of poverty, I know she would be grateful for money to help the ministries we assist with our parish tithe.

To honor her anniversary, our religious education students are preparing a spiritual bouquet of prayers for her school children and orphan girls in Port au Prince, Haiti.

Sr. Luvia is visiting family in New York for the occasion. That's why we need the cards as soon as possible.

A Haiti trip to visit Sr. Luvia is being planned for June 20-27. See page 4 for details about a meeting on Feb. 8.

■ Due to the terrible weather this winter, I am suffering from snow withdrawal. I will be away this week searching for cold and snow to recuperate.

Ron Hutchinson will preside at Masses next weekend. Formerly the pastor of Holy Redeemer Parish in Jenison, Fr. Hutchinson now lives at St. Pius X and serves full-time as the director of priestly vocations and the continuing formation of clergy for the Diocese of Grand Rapids.

Have you seen our Building Plans?

Over 80 parishioners attended the Parish Information Meeting on Jan. 19 to learn about plans for a new youth and multipurpose room adjacent to an expanded gathering area. The $3 million project will also include replacement of our parking lots and boilers.

A capital campaign to fund this important project is now being developed. The formal campaign will begin the weekend of April 22 and reach its crescendo on May. 21. The campaign is being led by parishioner Scott Alvesteffer, with Denise Kolesar as communications director. Additional leadership positions are in the process of being filled. PLEASE PRAY for the success of this historic endeavor. IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN ASSISTING with the campaign, please email Scott at scott.alvesteffer@alliedfinishinginc.com.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU to the members of the Campus and Facilities Master Planning Committee who have helped us get this far: John Auchter, Marilyn Beckwith, Don Hebel, Tim Lynch, Billejo Ketchum, Kris Phillips, Kristin Ruther and Randy Wright.

The renderings below are called "conceptual plans." That's because they try to give a general idea of the location, scope and size of the improvements. But exact details, such as the amount of glass, color palate, etc. have yet to be determined.

The expanded Gathering Area will serve as a welcoming hub between the new Youth-Multipurpose Room and the rest of our facilities.

Proposed patio outside the Youth-Multipurpose Room. This area occupies what is now lawn in the courtyard between the Religious Education Center and original church.

Growing in Christ

Weekly Stewardship Report

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: In today's Gospel, Jesus begins his Sermon on the Mount with a series of blessings, the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes are a summary of the fundamental attitude of a Christian steward. Make it a point to reflect on this Gospel reading during the week. Identify the blessing you relate to the most. Which one is the most challenging for you? from the ICSC Catholic Stewardship January 2017 e-bulletin

Catholic Schools Week

BISHOP DAVID WALKOWIAK
Catholic Diocese of Grand Rapids

Dear Friends in Christ,

Enrollment continues to grow in our Catholic schools! This is good news as we celebrate national Catholic Schools Week, January 29-February 4. Catholic schools in the diocese now serve more than 6,500 students, a number that has increased for two straight years.

I wish to thank the parents who send their children to Catholic schools. To those of you who work or volunteer in our schools, thank you for sharing your talents and Catholic faith with our students. Without you the ministry of our Catholic schools would not be possible. I believe Catholic schools, like no other ministry of the Church, offer students a daily encounter with Jesus Christ accomplished within the context of the highest-quality education. For that reason, I invite every Catholic in the diocese to value and support our Catholic schools.

If your family is considering Catholic school education, the Welcome Scholarship is being offered again for the 2017-18 school year. This scholarship is available to all families with children in preschool through 11th grade who were not enrolled in our schools during the 2016-17 school year. Each new student who meets the scholarship criteria is eligible for these awards ($250 for preschool, $750 for K-8, and $1,000 for 9-11). Prayerfully consider a Catholic school near you by visiting our schools' webpage, CatholicSchools4U.org, or by calling our Office of Catholic Schools at (616)246-0590.

Through our strategic planning process, Catholic Schools: Bridging Faith and Future, we are committed to offering an excellent education to even more students. Launched one year ago, this effort has engaged clergy, school and parish leaders, and our wider Catholic community in developing a strategic plan that enhances Catholic culture and mission, programmatic excellence, affordability and accessibility, and stewardship and sustainability. The process is now in its third and final round. The draft strategic plan will be shared with diocesan decision makers ahead of implementation this summer.

I am grateful to you for your support of our Catholic school ministry and your continued prayers for all the young people of our diocese.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ David J. Walkowiak

THE OFFICE OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS invites you to join them in Danner Hall at coffee and donuts on Feb. 5 after the Sunday Masses. Learn about the Welcome Scholarship for students who are enrolling for the first time. This scholarship is not based on financial need. Representatives will be here from Catholic Central, West Catholic, Holy Spirit, and St. John Vianney schools.
