REAL PEOPLE + REAL PRESENCE

... a welcoming Roman Catholic family of God
empowered by the Holy Spirit to grow our relationship with Jesus Christ and with one another as we worship, pray, learn and serve.

Practicing Faith

Free will. The freedom we all have is not a license to murder, be unfaithful, or tell lies. We can do these things. But we can choose not to do any of them. If we trust God—and God's saving plan for us and for the world—than we will want to be just, to act with righteousness, and to be in a right relationship with God, with others, and with the whole of creation.

- What have I heard today about being right with God?
- What have I been taught today about right relationships with family and friends?
- How will I choose to trust God this day, this week?

Prepare for Sunday: Read and reflect on The Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time (beginning on pg. 117) in the "Living Liturgy" missal.

where you are, with what you have to be Christ's hands and feet on this earth"

Linda is the wife of the late Dave Harnish, who led the St. Pius X Stewardship Committee for nearly 20 years.

■ At the 10:30 am Mass we welcome Fr. Andrew Kolenda, LC, as main celebrant.

Father Andrew's parents, Donald and Julie, are parishioners here along with a brother, three sisters and a niece. He was ordained to the priesthood in Rome last December for the Legionnaires of Christ, an international congregation of priests and seminarians. Although Father Kolenda has not lived in Michigan for nearly two decades, let us all say: Welcome Home!

■ A special welcome at the 10:30am Mass is also extended to nearly 40 families with children preparing for First Reconciliation in March and First Holy Communions during the Easter season. Following Mass, these families will take part in an afternoon retreat to help them get a better understanding of how sin hurts everyone, but God forgives and heals his people when they participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

I'm finding it important to invest more time and space in the bulletin writing about parish news. That's because there's a real need to highlight all the good things being accomplished by ordinary people to counteract the negativity flowing from the White House and the Halls of Congress.

I feel my heart is being torn in multiple directions. Part of the tearing comes from stances that blatantly reject everything Jesus teaches in the gospel about love of God, self and neighbor. Another force of the tearing comes from being aware of people whom I love and respect—many who do wonderful acts of mercy—whose stance seems at odds with Catholic-Christian teaching insisting we must welcome the stranger.

I guess our first task these days is to keep praying that essential verse in the Prayer of St. Francis: "O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek...to be understood as to understand."

With peace and hope,

Fr. Chris

Linda and her cousin, Joe

Mass for this sacrament, this situation is unique: On Valentine's day, Linda will donate a kidney to her cousin Joe. The details of how Linda came into contact with Joe after being out of touch with him for 45 years is one of those "God stories" of providence.

"If the parish family would pray for God's blessing on this transplant, that it is successful and healing goes well I would be most grateful," Linda said. "I want this to be a testament to following God's leading and 'doing what you can,

Growing in Christ

Weekly Stewardship Report

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: In today's Gospel, part of his Sermon on the Mount, Jesus does not speak of replacing the law of the Old Testament, he goes beyond it! He obliges his followers to work at being holier than even the strictest of Pharisees. But the work is not accomplished by following a religious "law", it requires growing in love for other human beings. Followers of Jesus know they are required to be good stewards of others. In what way will you exercise good stewardship over other people this week? Catholic Stewardship February 2017 e-bulletin

It's a great way to get involved and get to know people in the parish. If interested, or have questions, contact Sue VanGessel at suevangessel@gmail.com.

JOIN AN IMPORTANT OUTREACH MINISTRY by providing desserts or salads for funeral luncheons. You would be called as needed, not necessarily for every funeral. Your help is much appreciated by our grieving parishioners. Please call the Parish Office at 532-9344 to volunteer.
