

Celebrating Failure!

How every stumble leads your child one step closer to success.

Guest Speakers:

Alicia Farrell Ph. D.

Heston Sutman, principal of Goodwin Elementary School

Objectives:

- Learn how failure is a valuable step to success, and how we are cheating our children out of this experience
- Encourage your children to take chances and healthy risks
- Empower your kids using positive parenting skills instead of punishment.

Free Parent Workshop

Date: Tuesday, March 6th, 2018

Time: 5:30 - 7:00 p.m.

Place: Goodwin Elementary School

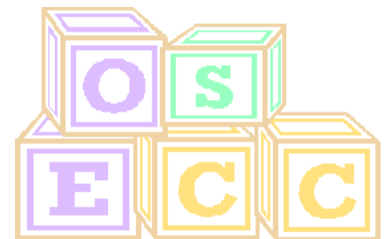

Babysitter provided, please RSVP below

Please RSVP to Jodi Kelly at
Youth and Family Services, 322 Main Street,
Old Saybrook, Connecticut 06475
(860) 395-3190
jodi.kelly@oldsaybrookct.com

Brought to you by the Old Saybrook
Early Childhood Council

http://www.oldsaybrookct.org/Pages/OldSaybrookCT_youth/OSECC

Middlesex United Way

The Old Saybrook Early Childhood Council receives funding support from a grant through Middlesex United Way