

Certified Aging In Place Specialist (CAPS) Symposium

LOUISIANA HOME BUILDERS ASSOCIATION is sponsoring a CAPS Symposium where you can earn CEU's for the NAHB certification program and the Louisiana Licensing Board for Contractors. (4 Hrs CEU)

DATE: Wednesday, October 18, 2017

WHERE: Holiday Inn Downtown Alexandria
(OK Allen Room)

TIME: 10:00 – 3:30

REGISTRATION FEE: $30 LHBA or CAPS Certified - $50 NON MEMBER/non -Certified

Program schedule:

- |       |   |
|-------|---|
| 10:00 | Registration  |
| 10:15 | Introductions   |
| 10:20 | All About CAPS – Michael LeCorgne, CAPS, CGA, CSP, CGP - Tom Ashley, CAPS, CGR, CGP*Learn about the CAPS certification program.   |
| 11:00 | Color & Paint in Environments for the Aging (approved for CEUs - ASID, IDCEC)Doug Boudreaux - Benjamin Moore*Discuss the growth of the aging population and the common health problems affecting the eyes.*Recognize the ways these health problems alter or interfere with color perception*Differentiate the common care environments for the elderly*Describe the ways color can help facilitate quality of life aspects of social involvement, navigation orientation in environments for the aging.*Summarize how premium, low-or no VOC paint can offer durability and safe application in environments for the aging. Lunch Break ***** |
| 1:00  | Lighting as a Powerful ToolPatricia Smith, Pemba Lighting, Automation and Electrical*Will enlighten you on planning for light as it affects people and the changes in design needed as our eyes age.  |
| 2:00  | Working Together - Occupational Therapy's Role in the Construction IndustryGlynn Wallace, OT*Explain scope of practice & its relationship to construction industry*Communicate benefits working with an OT*Understanding of common health conditions and illness  |
| 3:00  | Roundtable Q & A  |

To register contact LOUISIANA HOME BUILDERS ASSOCIATION
(225) 387- 2714 by October 10th.

Make checks payable to LHBA