

REMEMBERING BATAAN AND CORREGIDOR

May 18, 2017

HANK HENDRICKSON helped launch the US-Philippines Society in May 2012. Hank is a former U.S. Foreign Service Officer, with postings in East Asia (Philippines, Thailand, Singapore, and Korea), Europe and the Middle East. He joined the State Department in 1974.

During his postings to Asia, Hendrickson spent two tours in the Philippines, as a political officer (1979-83) and Counselor for Political Affairs (1995-97). Prior to joining the Foreign Service, he was a commissioned officer in the Navy.

SONNY BUSA is a retired diplomat with the US Department of State who attained the rank of Consul General. His diplomatic career included postings in seven Embassies on different continents. He entered the diplomatic corps after service as an US Army infantry officer upon graduation from the United States Military Academy at West Point, NY. He served in a variety of command and staff positions in combat units. Sonny currently lectures on international and military affairs at West Point where he is a Visiting Professor.

PEPI NIEVA is a writer, editor, and public relations professional with experience in corporate communications; marketing and public relations; editorial, publication and video production; and community advocacy. She has served in various civic and professional boards, including the Hawaii Community Foundation, the Legal Aid Society, Public Relations Society of America, International Association of Business Communicators, and the Filipino Association of University Women. She lives in Hawaii and Oregon. Pepi redesigned and edited the Commemorative Edition of Cadet, Soldier, Guerrilla Fighter

Register at

www.usphsociety.com