Expressions of the Heart

by Sharon Buss

Beloved Intercessors,

Loving greetings from Boston! Once again a "suddenly" opportunity has whisked us into a significant, historical place for God's purposes to be activated. ETH Judy Ball of Breaker of Dawn Ministries is following the leading of the Lord to hold "Ignite Ivy," a series of special meetings to minister to God's hand-picked students from Ivy League schools. These young people have the potential to become world leaders in days to come. This is a glorious opportunity to help them get saved, filled with the Holy Spirit, and grounded in the things of God, to help them become what the nations of the world need in their leadership.

We hope to be able to stream at least some of the meetings to our Facebook page for our Friday Night Live Worship service this week. There will be many notable speakers, including Pastor Mark Bristow. Claren McQueen will be leading most of the worship services, and Philip and I will be backing him up.

When we flew into the area, we spent the night with my cousin who is a history and ancestry buff. He shared with me about a number of ancestors that were a part of the founding of this nation. As he drove us into Boston, traffic slowed us down to a stop right next to the Kings Chapel Cemetery. I began reading the brass plaque on the entrance that named some of the famous people who were laid to rest there. He commented about one of them who was our grandmother many generations back.

There is something about knowing where you come from that helps you know where you are going. And in learning our roots, we have the opportunity to pray and ask God to forgive the sins of our fathers, even as Daniel did, to bring healing to our land. I'm looking forward to seeing how the Lord leads in the days to come!

On Monday we will meet up with our Haiti mission team and head to Haiti. I am so excited about this opportunity! God has his hand on this tiny little nation to our south. We will greatly appreciate your prayers for us as we go on this mission. When we return home from that trip, we will be back a little more than a week and then head to Israel to join our Prayer Assignment Team. I think we still have room for three more people, so if you feel like the Lord is speaking to you, please apply to be considered for part of the team.

We are also working very hard on the details for our next Jerusalem Summons, November 2-13. This event will include an extraordinary, comprehensive tour of Israel for first timers, as well as taking in some unique and unusual sights for those who have gone many times! The highlight will be three nights and two days of meetings in the Israel Prayer Tower, overlooking the City of Jerusalem from the 20th floor of the City Tower. The Holy Spirit uses this event to make an impact on the spiritual atmosphere of the Land. Pray about coming with us!

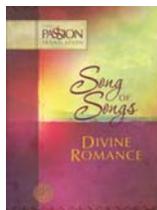

The price including flights on El Al (Israel's airline) from New York is $3787, and without air for $2679. This year we plan a night at the Dead Sea and visits to the ancient copper mines of Timna, and the ancient Messianic community of Susya, where Jesus' followers' lives were spared because they obeyed His warning to flee Jerusalem when they saw it surrounded by armies—and much more! Call Bell Travel at (800) 637-2355 for more information. Register online at www.bwti.com or find the link on our website: www.eth-s.org

And we are delighted with how things are coming together for the 39th World Convention, July 3–7, at the Holiday Inn in Springdale, Arkansas. We have all the speakers confirmed! They are: Sigi Oblander, Clay Nash, Robert Henderson, Gene Little, Peter Snyder, Mark Bristow, and yours truly. I'm getting excited already! Also, the hotel reservation link is now available online. You may go to our website (www.eth-s.org) to find the online link (there is also a flyer with all of the information on it that you can download from there), or you may call the Holiday Inn directly at (479) 751-8300. Be sure to mention that you are attending the End-Time Handmaidens and Servants World Convention. The dates are July 3-7, 2017. We will also have a "pre-glow" meeting on Sunday night July 2, in case you want to come early. You may shop for flights into XNA (a.k.a. NW Arkansas or Fayetteville/Bentonville Airport). The hotel is conveniently located near the intersection of I-49 and US412, in an area with lots of choices of restaurants and fast food establishments.

Thank you for your prayers! We always know when we're being carried on a wave of intercession — it makes our work so much easier!

Your handmaiden and servant,
Sharon and Philip

“Sing unto God ye kingdoms of the earth: O sing praises unto the LORD, Selah. To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens which were of old: lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice. Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds.” Psalm 68:32-34

Dear Intercessors for Israel:

This week U.S. President Trump and Israel's Prime Minister Netanyahu met for private talks in the White House. The agenda focused on a multitude of subjects including the feasibility of moving the U.S. Embassy to Jerusalem, whether the “two state” Israel-Palestine peace solution is viable, the continuing nuclear threat to Israel from Iran, as well as ISIS, and the Syrian conflict. President Trump and PM Netanyahu discussed the status of Israeli communities in Judea and Samaria (West Bank). President Trump called on Israel to “hold off on settlements,” something Israel has observed for the past 8 years.

Pray that as a result of these initial talks, that the U.S. and Israel can find points of agreement. Pray that this devilish “two state solution” be seen for what it is, a scheme to destroy Israel. Pray that true new avenues can be created. Pray that President Trump's eyes be opened to the LORD's purposes for Israel. Pray for righteous strategies for the U.S. to follow in the Middle East. Pray that all informing spirits as to President Trump's or Prime Minister Netanyahu's intentions be bound and gagged.

New Hamas Leader

The Iranian sponsored terrorist group that rules Gaza Strip has elected Yahya Sanwar, a senior figure in the organization's military wing, as its new leader. Sanwar, 55, is not well-known outside of Hamas and rarely makes public appearances or gives interviews to the media. Before he was released from an Israeli jail in October 2011 as part of a prisoner exchange deal with Hamas, he had been serving a life sentence for the murder of Palestinians suspected of collaboration with Israel. Sanwar has himself admitted to murdering these men with his “own hands.”

Palestinians who have met with Sanwar speak of him being an Islamic extremist, even in the context of his organization, and as someone who speaks in apocalyptic terms about perpetual war with Israel (www.haaretz.com 2/15/2017). Proverbs states that there are six things the LORD hates including “hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, and feet that be swift in running to mischief,” (Pr. 6:17-18).

Pray that this evil man's hands are tied, so he cannot work any other evils against Israel. May he be like the Philistine idol Dagon, of which it is written “...the following morning when they rose, there was Dagon, fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! His head and hands had been broken off and were lying on the threshold; only his body remained” (I Sam. 5:4, NIV).

Operation Menashe 2017

Another 102 members of the Bnei Menashe Jewish community, which claims descent from one of Israel's lost tribes, are being brought on Aliyah this week by Shavei Israel, a Jerusalem-based nonprofit that aims to strengthen ties between the Jewish people and descendants of Jews around the world. The 102 new immigrants come from the northeastern Indian state of Mizoram, which borders Burma and Bangladesh and is home to the second-largest concentration of Bnei Menashe in India after that of the state of Manipur. This marks the first time since January 2014 that Bnei Menashe will be making Aliyah from Mizoram. Thirty of the new immigrants arrived in Israel on Tuesday, February 14, and 72 will arrive on Thursday, February 16. They plan to settle in the Galilee city of Nazareth Illit which already has a flourishing Bnei Menashe community.

“We are excited to be launching Operation Menashe 2017 with the Aliyah this week of 102 Bnei Menashe from Mizoram,” said Shavei Israel Founder and Chairman Michael Freund. “Over the course of the coming year, with God’s help, we will bring a total of more than 700 Bnei Menashe immigrants to Israel – the largest-ever airlift in a single year.”

Freund added: “After 27 centuries of exile, this lost tribe of Israel is truly coming home. But we will not rest until all the remaining Bnei Menashe still in India are able to make Aliyah as well.” The Bnei Menashe are believed to be descendants of the tribe of Manasseh, one of the Ten Lost Tribes exiled from the Land of Israel more than 2,700 years ago by the Assyrian empire. So far, some 3,000 Bnei Menashe have made Aliyah thanks to Shavei Israel, including more than 1,100 in the past four years. Some 7,000 Bnei Menashe remain in India waiting for the chance to return home to Zion (www.israelnationalnews.com 2/15/2017).

Behold the Man Exhibit

A new exhibition opening at The Israel Museum, Jerusalem, explores for the first time the figure of Jesus as a significant, multifaceted, and pervasive symbol throughout the history of Jewish and Israeli art. The exhibition, Behold the Man: Jesus in Israeli Art, surveys works in a variety of media by prominent artists working from the second half of the 19th century until today. These works showcase the evolving attitudes of Jewish, Zionist, and Israeli artists toward a figure whose place in Jewish history has been negotiated and reinterpreted over more than two millennia. The “Behold the Man “ exhibit displays 150 works by 40 artists [which] “explore the complex, evolving attitudes of Jewish, Zionist and Israeli artists toward the Christian savior” (www.timesofisrael.com).

The description beside the painting, Christ teaching in Capernaum by Maurycy Gottlieb reads in part, “Gottlieb may well have been the most important Jewish painter of the nineteenth century...he created a body of work that joined Polish Christian culture to his own Jewish identity in a search for reconciliation.” Christ teaching in Capernaum shows Jesus standing in the pulpit of a synagogue built in Greco-Roma style. His body is wrapped in a prayer shawl, but his head is surrounded by the halo from Christian artistic tradition. Not all of the men and women listening to him appear to be Jewish.

One believer we know, told us that when she recently attended this exhibit, she observed a young IDF soldier, staring intently at this painting. He was captivated by the sight of Jesus teaching. The Apostle Paul wrote in his Epistle to the Corinthians that “the Jews require a sign” (I Cor. 1:22). What better sign to the Jewish people than an exhibit hall full of artwork portraying Jesus. This exhibit has been hosting record crowds of Israelis, curious to “behold the man.” Pray for this IDF soldier who God knows, and for the Jewish people to recognize their Messiah.

Bible Study

Marylois and I have begun a Thursday evening Bible study at the House of Peace. Starting next week, I will be teaching on Jesus in the Old Testament. I will be focusing on Messianic scriptures, prophecies, and shadows shown through certain examples like the Passover lamb, and the Savior’s own words as to who He is. Peter recognized Jesus as the Christ, and we hope through this study, we all can gain a greater appreciation as to who Jesus is: Our King, Priest, Prophet, and the Son of God.

Religious Equality at Stake in Indonesia's Election

JAKARTA--Indonesia's commitment to democracy and religious tolerance may be at stake as voters in Jakarta choose their next governor Wednesday. Jakarta's incumbent governor, Basuki Tjahaya Purnama, popularly known as Ahok, is currently on trial for allegedly insulting Islam and some Indonesians believe that may cause him to lose. His supporters, however, say his record of good governance may lead to victory regardless of the charges against him.

"Ahok is one of the best governors Jakarta ever had. Ahok does not have a problem with the Muslims. The Muslim are moderate, rational and compatible with democracy. But the hardliners are rejecting democracy," political analyst Boni Hargens, a Muslim, told CBN News. Christians believe Ahok is an answer to decades of prayer in the world's most populous Muslim country. "This has been going on now for almost 30 years. This momentum of prayer for Indonesia, for its government. I see the rise of Basuki Purnama as a God-ordained leader...fearless in integrity, focused on being transparent Godly leader," said Mark McClendon, the country manager for CBN Indonesia. Ahok is Chinese and a Christian, so if he becomes the freely elected governor of Jakarta it could open the way for a double minority to become the next president, McClendon said.

China Opens Largest Christian Park, Sparks Outrage

The largest Christian theme park in southern China will be opening its doors this coming Spring. Changsha Xingsha Ecological Park will be a sprawling 150,000 square meters and will be a place of prayer, site seeing, and photography for all Chinese citizens. The biggest attraction will be an 80-meter-tall, ark-shaped church standing in the Middle of the park.

While the park is expected to be a major tourist attraction, many are outraged after learning that China's atheistic government helped fund the project. One Sina Weibo user, China's version of Twitter, wrote "the government should be alert to the penetration of religious ideas that contradict China's mainstream ideology, which might pose a threat to political security."

Many are skeptical as to why China would use religion for tourism. "Many local governments are struggling for progress during industrial transformation, and religion is being used for cultural and tourist development," Zhang Yiwu, a professor and cultural scholar at Peking University, told Global Times.

Despite the backlash, reports say Christianity is on the rise in China. A report released during the 9th National Chinese Christian Congress in 2013 showed that more than 2.4 million Chinese Protestants were baptized from 2007-2012, with experts saying that more people are turning to religion for help and spiritual consolation.

Prayer Request:

Church leadership remains a critical bottleneck in further growth. Leaders who train and disciple other leaders into ministry and who minister in Word and Spirit are always needed. Pray for those involved in training through seminaries and Bible schools. Pray also for students who are hindered by lack of finance, facilities or time.

Amerindians from the Chaco have long been a marginalized and exploited minority, their cultures ravaged by the majority. Only in 1996 did the peoples of the Chaco region gain official title to their lands. Many of these groups' beliefs are a highly syncretized blend of Catholicism and animism. Pray for maturing of the indigenous Church, and for both expatriates and mainstream Argentineans to be sensitive to this. Pray also for ongoing translation programmes in indigenous languages (SIL/LETRA, UBS, CMS).
