Beloved,

Loving greetings from the Valley of Angels! We have wonderful news on the home front! The roof on the Ark (our office) has been completed and paid for! Thank you so much for your faithful prayers all these years and thank you to all who gave! We are so looking forward to having no more leaks when it rains.

Happy 70th Birthday to Israel! From its inception, this ministry has been closely linked with Israel, and we are rejoicing greatly for their great milestone anniversary! Each year we are mandated by the Lord to bring a group to His Land in March for strategic intercession. This past March, we saw glorious breakthroughs in the spirit realm when we redeemed the Land at the altars of Abraham and reiterated God's promises to his descendants. All of these altar locations are in what the world calls "The West Bank." It is critical for God's people to stand in agreement with His Word instead of humanistic politics. In this year of the celebration of this 70th landmark, it is critical for the nations to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital and move their embassies there, but they must not use that move as leverage to divide Jerusalem and make it the capital of an Islamic state! God makes provision in His Word for non-Jews to live in the Land alongside Israel, under Israel's jurisdiction: Isaiah 14:1, "For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob." Ezekiel 47:14, 22 "And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.... And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel." Our job is to pray for the "strangers" to get the revelation of Jesus as the Messiah which will give them a love for His people, Israel. It's happening all the time! Let's pray more!

Another aspect of the Lord's mandate is our Jerusalem Summons and full tour each year in November. We are announcing this year's Jerusalem Summons on November 1-12. Because we're celebrating Israel's 70th Birthday this year, our trip will not only include the sights that go back to the Patriarchs, the Prophets, and Jesus' ministry, but we will also highlight some of the places where God has been bringing His Word to pass in our own modern era here in this Land of His Promise Fulfilled! When I read the itinerary, I see five or six places I've never been, and I've been going for forty years! We will see the essential biblical sights for the first timers, and a lot of unusual places for the repeaters. The price is $3797 on El Al from Newark. It includes airfare, hotels (based on two per room), a sumptuous buffet breakfast and dinner daily, touring, events, tips, and taxes. See the enclosed flyer.

The third aspect, and of the greatest importance, is the House of Peace. And while Israel celebrates 70 years, we are celebrating 20! In 1998 we signed the contract and took possession of the lovely "Upper Room furnished and prepared" to which the Lord had led us in Givat Chananya, where the priests lived in biblical times. His heart was to make a home away from home for those whom He would send to pray, and "a watering place" for the local Believers to fellowship and study. Probably our most important feature is our weekly prayer meeting where seasoned intercessors come to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit to make a difference in the spiritual atmosphere in Israel and the Middle East. Gene and Marylois faithfully exercise the gift of hospitality, lead the prayer charge, and teach the Word. "For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem" (Isaiah 2:3b).

The Fulness of Time: This is a most amazing kairos time to be living! Kairos is a brief period of time that has opportunity in it. The definition from www.merriam-webster.com is "a time when conditions are right for the accomplishment of a crucial action: the opportune and decisive moment." Israel's 70th birthday (and our 20th!) is now added to the recent 50th Anniversary of the Reunification of Jerusalem, the 100th Anniversary of the Balfour Declaration and the 500th Anniversary of the starting of the Reformation. We are in a season of opportunity and we must not sleep through it! This is the most crucial time to be rightly relating to our Father in Heaven and to know what is on His heart. We cannot take this lightly!

Wake Up, Bride! I recently shared the following in our bi-monthly prayer letter: Linda Gladman reminded us the other day of a vision that she had many years ago of a woman sleeping in her bed. Linda asked the Lord who it was that she was seeing. The Lord said, “That’s my Bride, and she’s asleep.” Then Linda heard the alarm clock going off, and the Lord said, “I keep sounding the alarm, but she keeps turning on the snooze. But I’m getting ready to sound the alarm that will shake her to the depths of her being, and when I do, she will leap off her bed of complacency.” Then she saw the Bride leap up out of bed feet first and land at the foot of her bed. Her armor was laid out on the floor, and in one swoop of motion, she bent down and slipped into her armor. As she was walking out to go into the battle, she heard the Lord say, “Take up your bed, and make no provision for a relapse!” She knew that this was the end times and she wouldn’t be coming back to her bed anymore.

Signs in the Sky: Did you go back to sleep after the total solar eclipse in August? Do you recall that its path entered the USA at Salem, Oregon, and that it crossed over seven cities named Salem? And on April 8, 2024, approximately seven years later, another total eclipse will also cross seven cities named Salem. It will intersect the path of the previous eclipse like an “X” in southern Illinois’ “Little Egypt” area. Speculations are rampant as to the meaning of these cosmic events and their curious, “coincidental” passage over multiple “Salems.” It’s no wonder that there are many towns by that name in this country, as many of the founders were Bible believers. Of course, Salem was the city of Melchizedek, the priestly king to whom Abraham gave tithes, and it was later known as Jerusalem.

So we can logically surmise that the heavens are speaking to this nation about Jerusalem. Our attitude towards Jerusalem is key in determining our future. It is good that the USA finally officially recognized Jerusalem as Israel’s capital after 70 years (not to mention that David made Jerusalem the capital of Israel 3000 years ago!), and that we are moving our embassy there now (23 years after legislation made provision to do so!). Other nations are beginning to follow our lead. That puts us into the possibility of blessing according to God’s promise to Abraham in Genesis 12:3. “I will bless those who bless you, and curse him that curses you.”

The fact that the two solar eclipse paths intersect in “Little Egypt,” reminds us of the time of Joseph, who interpreted Pharaoh’s dream of seven years of plenty followed by seven years of famine. In addition to having some cities in the region with Egyptian names, such as Cairo, Karnak, and Thebes, and that its appearance is similar to the Nile delta, one of the reasons southern Illinois is called “Little Egypt,” is that in the winter of 1830-31, northern Illinois was hit by an early frost and a late spring, destroying the crops. Wagon trains came south to “Little Egypt” to buy grain in the same way Joseph’s family did. Could it be that we are in a season of abundance that will provide for a lean time to come?

Seven-Year Revival: I believe there is also a point of connection here to a prophetic night vision John Ramos received last year. In it he was in a large conference room with a lot of people. Seated at a large desk was a very distinguished man of some important position, and across from him was Pastor John Kilpatrick (who pastored the Brownsville Assembly during its revival in the 1990s). In front of Pastor Kilpatrick was a white sheet of paper with a series of very nice pens. Then a gentleman sitting in the background at an executive head table, calmly said, “What you are about to witness is historic. It’s the signing of a proclamation of a Seven-Year Thorn and Thistle Revival.” John Ramos said that he understood that there would be “gatekeepers” who would try to stop the move of God.

The curse that Adam and Eve’s sin brought on the land in Genesis 3:18 included thorns and thistles coming from the ground. Sin caused a perversion of the plant life. In the Matthew 13 account of the Parable of the Sower, verse 22 explains that the thorns into which some of the seed fell are “the care of this world and the deceitfulness of riches that chokes the Word and he [the person who received the Word] becomes unfruitful.” That sounds like America! We have become so complacent¹ and proud in our accumulation of goods that we have lost the reality of eternity and the Kingdom of God! Could it mean that in the coming revival, those who have been choked by the care of this world and the deceitfulness of riches will be set free to serve God freely? Let's pray for that!!!

What do we have that was not given to us? C.S. Lewis, in his brilliant exposé of the demonic realm, The Screwtape Letters, shows how demons work to keep a person under their control. A senior demon is explaining to a junior demon, "You must therefore zealously guard in his mind the curious assumption 'My time is my own.' Let him have the feeling that he starts each day as the lawful possessor of twenty-four hours... The man can neither make, nor retain, one moment of time; it all comes to him by pure gift; he might as well regard the sun and moon as his chattels."

How many times have we thought that way? I know that I have often wrongly assumed that, and I now repent! As we endeavor to walk in the Spirit, we must not only realize that our time is not our own, but that our life is not our own (1 Corinthians 6:19-20), neither are our possessions our own. Remember what Solomon said in Ecclesiastes 5:15, "As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand." Jesus spoke in Luke 12:16-21 of the foolish man who decided to pull down his barns and build new ones because of the abundance of his harvest and wealth. "And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.' But God said unto him, 'Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?' So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

When we were in Jerusalem in March, we had a lovely leisurely time at the Western Wall. In addition to praying in the Spirit there, I love to pick up the English version of the Hebrew prayer book, the Siddur. I find it enlightening to read the scriptures and prayers in it. I always get a fresh perspective of what God meant in the Hebrew Scriptures. Among other things that inspired me in prayer, I saw a different translation of Deuteronomy 6:5, "Love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your resources." Although I understood that in principle, it had never dawned on me that to love Him with all my might meant to love Him with my possessions and sources of supply.

You Can't Serve God and Mammon: We need to be reminded once in a while of Paul's words in 1 Timothy 6:10, "For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows." As you can see from this illustration, the one who loves his money doesn't control it — the love of money controls him. The spirit of Mammon creates an unrealistic mindset about possessions. Proverbs 11:24 says, "One person is generous and yet grows more wealthy, but another withholds more than he should and comes to poverty" (NET).

The miser lives in fear that he must hold back his possessions/money because if he doesn't, he might not have enough for himself. Even if he gives, he isn't free to do it too generously. Hoarders often live as though they were impoverished so that they can "save" their money, even though their income is sufficient to live comfortably. Those who have lived in poverty are especially inclined to hoard, as though their self image depended on having possessions, but even when they begin to have a decent income, they won't spend it — just in case. (Fear and faith both see something that hasn't happened yet!) Then when they die and take nothing with them, they have left behind an abundance to the amazement of their heirs. Why couldn't they have felt free to spend it to make their life a little more comfortable, or to have shared it to ease someone else's plight? The word miser and the word miserable come from the same root!

Mammon from Collin de Plancy's
Dictionnaire Infernal
<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mammon>

Is it possible that the great wealth transfer that we have been hearing prophesied could begin by Believers renewing their minds to the truth that "the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, the world, and they that dwell therein" — that all they think they own really belongs to God and isn't theirs to control? Could it be that the Body of Christ would get free from the spirit of Mammon — that it would be expunged from the Church? The Holy Spirit has been speaking to many to invest in the Kingdom of God and He's waiting for obedience to begin.

Debt Jubilee: Many financial pundits have been talking about a biblical-style Jubilee debt cancellation, that will expunge the massive debt we have accumulated through our greed. That may be good news for you if you are in debt, but if your money is in the bank to whom the debt is owed, your savings could disappear when the bank goes under.

When the Holy Spirit was poured out in the book of Acts, “the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.” It takes a move of the Holy Spirit to renew our minds — let’s ask God to move and deliver us!

The Coming of the Kingdom: I heard from Dr. Sam Matthews while I was writing this letter. He carries the mantle of intercession of Rees Howells (who was mightily used by God to pray Great Britain through World War II). When he was with us in Engeltal and at our World Convention two years ago, he saw the Archangel Michael come to impart something to those who had gathered. Dr. Matthews told me, “I see him again at times in our church. The armor, which was like platelets of heavy leather — very weathered and battle-scarred, brown shades mixed with buckskin — is now changing colors! Slowly (started faintly), over the last weeks, they are taking on a lavender, purplish, royal blue color (becoming more royal each day)! God is showing us that this change represents the fact that the warfare, praise, worship, word, prayers, and obedience are causing the Kingdom to come forth and the reign of The King is changing all things to glorify Him! I am watching the Kingdom come! Glory! He’s showing us to go further in, and that the angels are there to help us.”

He said that there is a lot of warfare that is displacing things in the spirit realm. He was in Canada recently and saw demons being revealed. God is calling them out by His Presence. Because of the praises, worship, word, prayer, etc., these evil spirits are being dislodged, and displaced. They’re being expunged! Totally obliterated! Negated, deleted, taken out of the geographical area! This is a great encouragement to continue to press into the Presence of God and let the Holy Spirit lead us into bringing His sovereignty into the atmosphere wherever He sends us!

The Power of the Resurrection: As a part of our annual Prayer Assignment in Israel in March this year, we attended the Sunrise Service at the Garden Tomb on Resurrection Day. The tomb is still empty! The New Testament is replete with references to the Mighty power of God that was expressed in the earth that day. It’s the best part of the good news! The renewing of our minds to the reality of the Kingdom of God will develop as we meditate on the amazing power that raised Jesus Christ from the dead. According to Romans 1:3-5, it was the resurrection that declared Him to be the Son of God with power. Paul declared his desire in Philippians 3:10, “That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death.” How are we made conformable to His death? It was the joy that was set before Him that gave Him the endurance He needed to suffer death for all of us. If He lives in us, so does His joy! Romans 1:5 goes on to say that it is the resurrected Jesus that gives us grace... for obedience to the faith among all nations, for His name. His resurrection and ascension place on us and in us authority to reign by His Presence, even in our current circumstances.

When Jesus ascended into Heaven from the Mount of Olives in Acts 1, the two “men in white” asked the disciples why they were gazing up into Heaven. They declared that He would come the same way that He left. In the days between the resurrection and ascension, He appeared to many people. Reports of His appearing, especially to Muslims and Jews, are becoming more and more common. Is this another sign of His soon return? Ella Long heard this in her spirit recently: “The Trinity is walking slowly toward the Mount of Olives.”

Romans 11:15 says, “For if the casting away of them [the Jews] be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?” Could it be that the key to the timing of the general resurrection of the dead is directly tied to the “tipping point” of the Jewish Harvest? Pray for the veil to be removed from their eyes and for Yeshua to reveal Himself!

Mantled with Glory for the Nations at the 40th World Convention:

The Cloud of Glory Brings the Miracle

"And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud" (Exodus 16:10).

"That evening quail flew in and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew all over the camp. When the layer of dew had lifted, there on the wilderness ground was a fine flaky something, fine as frost on the ground. The Israelites took one look and said to one another, man-hu (What is it?) They had no idea what it was. So Moses told them, 'It's the bread God has given you to eat'" (Exodus 16:13-15 MSG).

The people were complaining against Moses and Aaron. They were hungry. Their food supply which they had brought with them had run out. They accused Moses and Aaron of bringing them out into the wilderness to starve them to death. Suddenly they had forgotten their lives of slavery, and how their baby boys had been put to death by Pharaoh. They only remembered the good things, "would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full!" was their complaint (Exodus 16:3). I saw that there was going to be a mutiny, a full-scale revolt. Even Moses' and Aaron's lives were in jeopardy. I knew I had to do something, and I had to do it immediately. I sent the Glory Cloud. The people turned to see it as it approached them there in the wilderness and they were immediately filled with fear and awe, as they saw it coming closer and closer. The camp was in silence, the screaming accusations stopped; the anger was replaced by fear and trembling. God came down!

That is what the world needs now. The whole world needs a Divine Visitation. The world is full of angry, frightened people, who are afraid of losing their jobs, their homes, their welfare. They are looking for a scapegoat. Some blame their government, some blame their president or dictator, and some blame Me. Others blame what they call "the Illuminati," Hitler blamed the Jews.

But the blame lies at the door of sinful hearts. If My people would humble themselves and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I would hear from Heaven, forgive their sins, and heal their land (2 Chronicles 7:14), and I would take poverty and disease away from the midst of them.

The whole world is in desperate need right now of seeing the Glory Cloud. In the next short while, you will see either revolution, riots and anarchy, or revival. It was the cry for bread that turned Russia into a revolutionary nation that lasted 70 years and spread across the world. It was revival that turned America into a missionary nation, and brought them prosperity. The future is up to you!

"I Want to Save the Entire City."

From the Journal of Sharon Buss

I want to save the entire city. [I immediately thought of Nineveh.]

What will that require?

Repentance!

What does that require?

Prayer for Me to pour out My Spirit. This season of time is your opportunity to pray for the outpouring. Pray like never before! Get in the Spirit and pray!

Some, like Jonah, want Me to pour out judgment. And if there is no repentance, I will be required to do so because of My own righteousness.

I want to save entire cities — entire nations — and I can, if you pray!

Remember when I showed Tandy Chiles: A huge net made of prayers.¹

Do you not realize that your main purpose on the earth as My Body is to do what I did when I walked the earth? I walked in communion with My Father, constantly looking to Him. I did what I saw Him doing, and I said what I heard Him saying. The preaching and miracles came out of My communion with My Father. In the same way, I expect My Body to keep their eyes on Me and Our Father. To do this you must walk in the Spirit and practice Our Presence.

1 The Lord showed Tandy Chiles that upon the homegoing of Billy Graham, we would see "THE GREATEST SOUL-Winning Net Ever cast in the HISTORY OF THE WORLD. As YOU PRAY FOR THE LOST, YOU ARE THAT NET, Millions will Come into THE KINGDOM OF GOD!"

Praying in the Spirit is the key. Pray in the Spirit until you receive understanding. When you receive understanding, act on it! I went about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed of the devil [Acts 10:38]. I acted on what I saw My Father doing in the Spirit. I preached the Kingdom of God because of what I heard Him say. You, as a member of My Body, are required in this season to step up and do the same.

Every move of My Spirit has been birthed in prayer. My disciples tarried in Jerusalem for ten days, praying together before the day of Pentecost came. Their corporate prayer created the atmosphere necessary for the outpouring of My Spirit. This is what I require of My Body at this time: to become so one with Me, hearts knit with Mine, that I will be able to complete the outpouring that I began at Pentecost. My early church saw the early rain. What I want to pour out now is My early and latter rain together in one month [Joel 2:23]. This requires corporate unity in prayer.

So much of the unity movement, so called, is a fleshly attempt to lay down differences, as My people have a sense of the need for unity. So they gather in the flesh and what they accomplish is wood, hay, and stubble [1 Corinthians 3:12], because they are acting out of their intellect. Only a move of My Spirit in your hearts can cause you to agree in prayer for the kind of move I want to pour out.

Only concerted prayer in the Spirit, praying My heart, will accomplish My heart's desire. Pray for these fleshly gatherings to receive the wind of My Spirit.

My early church — My Holy Spirit empowered apostles, walked fearlessly in the face of persecution, and so must you. They faced beatings, imprisonments, stonings, shipwrecks, rejection, etc., and so will you. In the midst of their persecutions, they walked with joy at the honor of suffering for Me. They had seen Me suffer for them, so with joy they received the sufferings of persecution. I met them in their joyful attitude and poured out miracles, bringing vast numbers to Faith in a very short time. Some of them received miraculous escapes from prison because their work was not finished yet. Some laid down their lives by My example, and their fearless deaths inspired multitudes more to believe.

Their martyr's blood became the seed of the church. They entered into My sufferings and experienced My joy [Hebrews 12:2].

Let Me clothe you with My Robe of Righteousness. See yourself dressed in Me. See your spirit as one with Me, superseding over your soul and body. This will enable you to walk in the Spirit, and your flesh — your soulish, intellectual, emotional, strong-willed nature — will no longer rule you. As you pray for My outpouring in your life, and begin to walk in it, pray for My outpouring upon My whole Body, that they will also step up and walk in the Spirit. And pray continually for My outpouring for the Harvest, that multitudes and multitudes — whole cities and whole nations — will be filled with My Spirit and walk in the fullness of the Kingdom of God on the earth as it is in Heaven.

Deuteronomy 11:13-14 says, “And it shall come to pass if you surely listen to the commandments that I command you today to love the Lord your God and to serve him with all your heart and all your soul, That I will give rain to your land, the early and the late rains...” Loving God and obeying Him is the key to receiving the outpouring of the early and latter rains.

Give Me Back My Stuff!

Graham Cooke shared a dream that he had of Jesus marching toward him, “looking annoyed like He had swallowed a wasp,” saying, “Graham, give Me back My stuff. You took some stuff that belongs to Me. Give it back!” Of course, Graham was confused and didn’t know what He meant. “That worry, that anger, that resentment, that bitterness, that fear — I died for it. I paid a price for it! It belongs to Me. It doesn’t belong to you! Give Me back My stuff!” He realized that he had been resurrecting the things that Jesus took on the cross, and repented with tears.

Then Jesus smiled at him, reached down, pulled him up, kissed him on both cheeks, and looking into his eyes, said, “Graham, have you any idea how utterly delighted I was to die for all those things? When I was on the cross, the joy that was set before me was, I knew that I was robbing you of the ability to experience all that negativity. I was taking all those things away from you that you would never have to experience them or encounter them ever again. And I could give you a whole new life where those things would be absolutely absent, and you could learn a different way of being. Have you any idea how excited I was to be able to take all those things away from you so you would never be fearful again, or anxious, or worried, or panicked? You never have to be angry or bitter, or resentful. You’d never have to do any of that stuff. You could be free — totally and completely free of all negativity. It wasn’t just your sin that I took on the cross, I took all your negativity — all your negative way of looking at things that makes you cynical and sarcastic — all your negative mindset that makes you imagine the worst before you even think about seeing the best. It takes you off into the shadows, then into the darkness.

"I robbed you of all that negativity so you can see the best, think the best, believe the best, speak the best. I took all that away from you, and here you are, Son, you just keep taking it all back like it belongs to you. It doesn't belong to you! I died for it. I paid a price for it! It's Mine! Give Me back My stuff! Graham, all the time you take hold of those things, you can't see who you really are. You can't become the person that I see when I look at you. All the time you take on all those characteristics, there is a disconnect between you and Heaven. I died so that you could stay connected. Son, it's called abiding — staying — dwelling — remaining in this place.

"Graham, I want My stuff back. Because as long as you are holding on to that, you actually cannot receive all the things I want to give you. You can pray until the cows come home and nothing will happen because I can only give in exchange for something. So I want all of that stuff to be gone and then you can have accelerated goodness. You can have accelerated grace. You can have accelerated power. You can become a man who moves quickly in the earth, because you're moving to the music of Heaven. You're moving in the atmosphere of Heaven, not the environment of earth. Come on, Son, give Me back that stuff. I've got things to give you, and you and I have things to do. We can't be messing around with this baby stuff anymore. We have things to do."

When he awoke from the dream, he wrote all the things he had stolen back, then he wrote the opposite of those things as what he was taking from Jesus in exchange.

The Lord gives you the ability to turn a problem into something else. He gives you the ability to take a negative and turn it into a positive. In His hometown of Nazareth, Jesus read from Isaiah 61 [NASB]:

The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me,
Because the LORD has anointed me
To bring good news to the afflicted;
He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to captives
And freedom to prisoners;
To proclaim favor and vengeance of our God;
To comfort all who mourn,
To grant those who mourn in Zion,
Giving them a garland instead of ashes,
The oil of gladness instead of mourning....

The mantle of praise instead of fainting.
So instead of our shame we will have a double portion,
And instead of humiliation they will shout for joy over their portion.

The word "instead" is the most powerful word in this passage. What it means is that instead of that, you should be having this. So, God gives you the ability to turn every negative into something else instead. Why? The reason why we are citizens of Heaven living on the earth, is because we are learning to move in the opposite spirit. We're not subject to the spirit of the world, we're subject to the Spirit of Heaven.

Five times in that passage the word "instead" is mentioned. And He means "in place of." God doesn't want you dealing with a negative, because He's already dealt with it. He killed it off; He's not resurrecting it! For God to deal with it, He would have to resurrect it from the grave. Do you think He's going to do that? Because that actually treads underfoot the cross of Jesus. God is saying, "I'm not dealing with your sin, I dealt with it once and for all. Read Romans 6!" What He's saying is, "I am dealing with your righteousness. I'm not dealing with sin, I'm dealing with holiness! I'm establishing righteousness in you."

He was talking with a guy that said, "I've had a filthy temper since I was a kid."

Graham said, "How old are you?"

He said, "I'm 42."

"How long have you been a Christian?"

"I got saved at 21."

Graham said, "Listen, man, for 21 years you had an anger problem, but now you've been in the Kingdom for 21 years. You don't have an anger problem, because the anger problem was killed off in Jesus. God isn't dealing with your anger, He's trying to teach you patience. And every time you get into that situation, you default to the old man that's always dead!" That's what we're doing.

Graham said, "When I took that stuff back, what was I doing? I was defaulting to a behavior that God has already killed off. I wasn't living in my identity. This is really critical, Guys. Because unless we get the basic truth of the Gospel, we can't hope to do the things that God really wants us to do.

You are so much better than you think!"

RAPED! God's Grace is Sufficient!

The following testimony is from the May, 1993 issue of our Magazine (#43). The sister was 70 when she had this experience.

Dear Sister Gwen, Forgive me for not having written sooner to give you a praise report (Luke 17:15). If you recall, I was robbed and raped by two men in the early morning hours of June 1, 1991. Here are some things you might like to hear:

As soon as the men left, I picked up my Bible and started reading out loud the first five Psalms (I read five per day). The next thing I recall was all this love being poured into my heart and like a whooshing sound. I was lifted up into heavenly places. Then out of my spirit came the song, "My Glory and the Lifter of My Head." I sang this song over and over for many days.

The same afternoon of the incident, the Lord said for me to pray for the two men. I had no anger, resentment towards them! I told the Lord, "First, I'll forgive them" and then I prayed. I have no idea how I prayed — probably in tongues. Days later the Lord said, "This is how I want you to pray for these two men: as Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them for they know not what they do,' and as Stephen prayed, 'Father, lay not this sin to their charge.'"

Every day I prayed for these two men after first meditating on 1 Corinthians 13:4-8a (Amp.), especially verse 5 which says, "I'll take no account of the evil done to me, I pay no attention to a suffered wrong."

From the beginning, the Lord said as I would read His Word, the Word (Jesus) would heal me.

It was very hard to come back home and be by myself after spending some weeks with family members. From the first day I kept prophesying that I would have to go through this. Twice I had to return to my family to get

Vision of the Harvest by Linda Gladman

I saw and felt the atmosphere of chaos, and that lives were at stake. It felt like when you come up on a ten-car pile-up. You know there are people dying, and everyone is running, trying to help them. The sky was very, very dark like when a storm is coming. I stood in a fenced wheat field that reached as far as you could see. I turned around to see what was going on, and I saw Jesus standing in the corner of this field. He had a huge pile of golden sickles in front of Him. Then He said in a loud voice, "Who will go?!" People started running toward Him. As each person came running to Him, He put the golden sickle in their hand with a loud slap, like a nurse putting a scalpel in a surgeon's hand, and they grabbed it. As they turned around some sleep. During this time, I meditated on fear scriptures (man and God's) and on peace and healing.

I was also praying for the police and special investigators for my case, that God would give them success; This was done in love.

I praise God for the gift of tongues to help me pray during the night hours against the fear and terror.

In September, the Lord spoke to me through the book of Jonah. I was no longer to pray that the police would capture these men. That night was the first night I slept in over three months.

I continued to pray for the two men and their salvation. On Sunday, October 6th, the Lord said I was no longer to call them my enemies, but my brothers. The burden was lifted. I believe with all my heart that these two men are now saved. And isn't this what it's all about, to get people saved? Glory to God! I can't believe it only took four months to get the victory! To God be the glory, the lifter of my head!

Three weeks ago, the Holy Spirit led me to praise the Lord for allowing me to go through this experience. All for His eternal purposes.

During this time (June-October) I felt the prayers of the saints and I knew I wasn't alone in this. Others were being my Aarons and Hurs. I want to thank you and all End-Time Handmaidens and Servants who prayed for me. God is so good.

Father God, I stand in awe of You!

Love, prayers and blessings,
— S.M.

Psalm 56:11 "In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me."

to go running into the field, He said, "Don't forget the ones that have fallen!" As I looked at the wheat, I saw someone bending down, cutting the stalks at the ground, and there were some lying on the ground instead of standing straight up like the rest.

Then I looked up and saw two or three combines cutting the wheat fast. They were marked 700 Club, TBN, and one other, bringing in large amounts of wheat quickly. I understood that there would be individual harvesters, and massive ones needed to bring in this great harvest.

Because we're celebrating Israel's 70th Birthday this year, our trip will not only include sights that go back to the Patriarchs, the Prophets and Jesus' ministry but we will also highlight some of the places where God has been bringing His Word to pass in our own modern era here in this Land of His Promise Fulfilled!

Board a beautiful, air-conditioned coach headed for the King Solomon Hotel nestled in Netanya, a beautiful seaside town on the shore of The Mediterranean Sea. Walk on the beach or just enjoy the view as the sun sets and the peace of the Sabbath settles over the coast. In the evening a Special Shabbat Dinner awaits you.

DAY THREE - Saturday, November 3 - In the morning, we'll ascend up the slopes of Mount Carmel to the quaint Zichron Ya'akov, one of the first "modern" villages in Israel, started in 1882. We'll meet some of the people of the town and hear the story of all that God did and is doing there. Then cross the mountain to The Valley of Armageddon. Stop at Nazareth and pray over the city! We'll drive past Mount Tabor to the hills above The Sea of Galilee to see the little village of Chorazin and its synagogue, where Jesus preached many times. Then we'll visit the lush, tropical paradise of Degania Alef, the first "kibbutz" (collective farm) ever built in Israel, where General Moshe Dayan was born. On this Sunday afternoon, set sail on The Sea of Galilee as we worship together just as Jesus and His Disciples did so many times on that same water! Then as the day ends, you'll have an opportunity to be baptized in the Jordan River at Yardenit! In the evening, dinner awaits you at our guest house by the Sea.

DAY FIVE - Monday, November 5 - Follow The Jordan River Valley past Jericho and Qumran, where The Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered to see the beautiful Springs of Ein Gedi, where David found refuge in the desert.
