

SUMMER READING, 2018 ENTERING SIXTH GRADE

Required Book: All students will read Hatchet by Gary Paulsen.
Also, you will read one additional novel from the list on the back of this page.

Due Date: First day of sixth grade

1. Your heading should include your first and last name, the date you completed your assignment and the words “Entering 6th grade” in the upper left corner of your paper.
2. Your report will include two parts, labeled on separate pages.

Part I Hatchet As you read Hatchet, look for passages that point to Brian’s ability to persevere even in difficult circumstances. Choose one quote from the beginning, one from the middle, and one from the end. Using the form below, copy each quote and respond to it by explaining what the quote shows about Brian’s mindset, skills, or ability to survive.

Part II Free choice book: After reading both books, choose a character from the novel of your choice who shares a common positive trait with Brian from Hatchet. Create an award (a ribbon or a certificate) that could be given to this character based on that trait. In addition, write a paragraph showing how the character’s actions demonstrate his/her trait. Your opening sentence will begin similar to this: Like Brian in Hatchet, _____ in the novel _____ also demonstrates much (courage/patience/determination, etc.)
Write about one trait only, and use examples from the novel to prove your point.

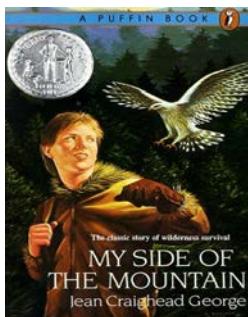

3. All writing should be in your own words. You should not consult outside sources or copy words or phrases from any other source. This assignment should show your true writing ability.
4. A paragraph should include 6-8 sentences. Be sure to use complete sentences. Use variety in the way you start your sentences. Include evidence from the text to prove your statements.
5. Your summer reading assignment should be typed and double-spaced. If you do not have access to a computer during the summer, please neatly write your report in blue or black ink on every other line of the paper. Work should be on only one side of the paper.
6. Check your paper thoroughly for spelling and punctuation errors. Proofread!
7. Staple your paper in the upper left hand corner. No folders or cover sheets, please.
8. Please bring your completed assignment on the first day of school in September.

Extra credit: If you would like to receive extra credit, please submit a picture of you and your summer reading book in a unique location. You and the book should be clearly visible. (Please, girls, do not submit swimsuit pictures.) The picture should be attached with a paperclip to the last page of your report. Be creative! Your creativity will determine the number of extra credit points you receive. Points possible: 1-2

Quotation Page Example

Directions:

In the first column: Write down a direct quote or passage from the text (one each from the beginning, middle, and end).

In the second column: Cite the page

In the third column: Explain what this quote shows about the thoughts, actions, or traits that help Brian to survive under difficult circumstances.

Quotation From the Text	Page Number	Response
"What were her greatest faults? Anger, impatience, stubbornness. Yes, it was to her faults that she turned to save herself now."	145	Meg had always been told that her faults were holding her back. She realizes here that her faults can also be her great strengths when she uses them in a positive way to stand up against the evil around her, and she vows to stubbornly resist IT. When I embrace how God has made me and use my traits in a positive way, I can accomplish great things, too.
