Enrollment deadline: May 31, 2017.

Art and Academic Camps

Pius XI once again will offer old favorites along with new camp offerings this summer. Register for one class or spend the day through our back-to-back offerings. All art and academic camps are for students entering grades 6-9. Register by June 1 for a fee of $125 per camp. After June 1st, camp fees increase to $135 per camp.

Musical Theater Workshop

June 19–23

9:00 am – 1:00 pm

Students will work on a segment from a popular musical theater play and present their performance at the conclusion of the workshop. There will be both singing and non-singing roles so everyone should feel welcome. The workshop will be taught by members of the Pius XI Performing Arts Department. Come be part of the fun on stage!

Speaking of Forensics

June 26-30

9:00 am – 12:00 Noon

Instructor: Rebecca Foster

Forensics, or competitive public speaking, is a popular extra-curricular activity in middle school and high school. Students will create and present an informative speech on the topic of their choice, act in a short small group play, and work on reading a passage from their favorite book. Led by a Pius XI English teacher and forensics coach, this camp is meant for all ability levels from beginner to seasoned veterans. This class is perfect for students who are considering joining the Pius XI forensics team, who are participating on their middle school team, or who would simply like to improve their confidence when it comes to speaking and reading aloud.

Animation

June 26 - 30

12:30 pm - 3:30 pm

Instructor: Will Swenson

Combine creativity and technology to explore the basics of animation. From rotoscoping to stop motion technology, students will learn about the world of animated arts. This is a basic, hands-on art class where students will use pen and pencils along with other technology while learning from the nationally recognized Pius XI Art Department faculty. This popular camp sold out last summer – sign up early to ensure your spot!

Art and Academic Camps

Drawing Strategies

July 31 – August 4

9:00 am – 12:00 noon

Instructor: Will Swenson

In this introductory course, students will begin to explore drawing as a dynamic language. Students will be guided through various strategies and approaches to enhance their ability to see and record the world around them. Students will focus on life drawing while also being encouraged to experiment with various media. Slides and discussions are also introduced to help students build their visual vocabulary. This is an excellent way for students to build their creative confidence and technical skills from the nationally recognized Pius XI Art Department.

Creative Writing

July 31 - August 4

12:30 pm – 3:30 pm

Instructor: Evelyn Mullooly

Dive into your imagination. Creative writing is all about discovering new ways to express yourself. This camp will help students find their artistic voice and encourage free thought. Students will explore writing prose, poetry, scripts, and more. Each day will consist of writing prompts, time for students to work on their own piece, and small group sharing. Students will have the opportunity to learn from members of the Pius XI writing club and writing tutors. The last day of camp will feature a reading performance for parents and relatives.

Engineering a Rube Goldberg Machine

August 7-11

12:30 – 3:30 pm

Instructor: Cathy Zurawski

Through this hands-on class, students will engage in the engineering design process to plan, construct and test a Rube Goldberg Machine. Following the ideas of the Rube Goldberg Competition, students will build a complex, multi-step machine to accomplish a simple task. Members of the Pius XI Championship Rube Goldberg Team will assist. This popular camp sold out last summer – sign up early to ensure your spot!

Summer Camps - Policies and Procedures

- You will receive an email confirmation of your summer camp registration. In the event that a camp is filled or cancelled due to low enrollment, you will be contacted by the Camp Coordinator to make alternative arrangements and a refund will be given. No refunds will be issued after June 1, 2017 to families who voluntarily withdraw from a summer program.
- Students who register for back-to-back camps will have a supervised lunch break. Students are responsible for bringing their own lunch and beverage each day.
- Art and academic camp check-in is held in the Pius XI main school lobby prior to that start of each camp time. Athletic camps meet in either the Pius XI Field House or at their designated park or field.
- Students should be picked up promptly at the end of each camp day as there is no after-camp supervision.
- By enrolling your student in any Pius XI Summer Camp, you hereby authorize school officials to take whatever action is deemed necessary, in their judgement, for the health of your child. You consent to any immediate medical procedures that the physician believes your child needs. You accept full responsibility for all costs related to such treatment. You also certify that your student is in good health and give permission for your student to participate in any or all programs. You hold Pius XI Catholic High School, its agents and camp workers free from all liability for any injury or loss which might occur as a result of your child's involvement in the Pius XI Catholic High School Summer Camps. You give permission for photos to be taken of your child to be used in Pius XI literature.

For questions or additional information, please contact Angela Mullooly, Summer Camp Coordinator, at 414-290-8146 or amullooly@piusxi.org.
