Coach George “Mac” McDaniel

Serra has had many great teachers, coaches and administrators.

We are honoring one of Serra’s greatest, Coach George “Mac” McDaniel.

Mac arrived at Serra in the fall of 1978 and taught, coached and was dean through the spring of 1989.

From the El Padre '87. “There is a man on campus who is seen as a deeply religious man, and a father figure. Mr. George McDaniel known to Serra as Mac, represents what it means to be a true, giving Christian man. He sets an example to the students at Serra by leading a life as the exemplar of a true Serra Man.”

Mac coached the '85-'86 Cavalier Basketball team to the CIF finals and was named “Coach of the Year”.

In the fall of 1988, Current Head Coach, Dwan Hurt, succeeded Mac as head coach.

When asked the role Coach McDaniel played in his life, Coach Hurt replied, “he taught me character, morality, values and integrity.”
