

Adath Israel Shabbat a la Carte with Israel Affairs PRESENTS

MICHAEL SOLOMONOV

James Beard Award-Winning Chef & Partner of Zahav, Co-Author of "Zahav: A World of Israeli Cooking"

SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 2017

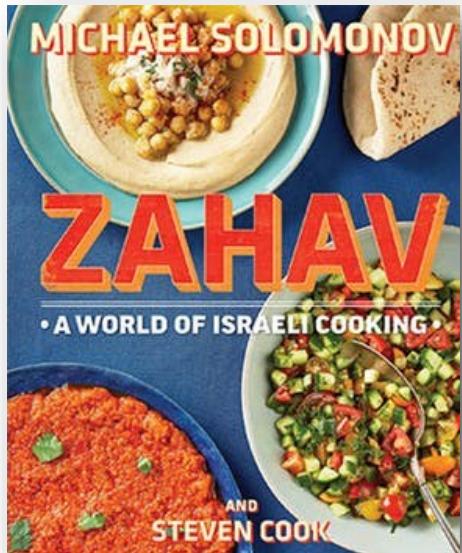

SHABBAT MORNING: Michael Solomonov will join us in the Mandell Sanctuary for a discussion about his life, his food, and what led him to his love of cooking. He will speak at the conclusion of services at approximately 11:20 AM. Babysitting will be available for young children so all adult members can enjoy this experience together. Free and open to the entire community. No RSVP necessary.

SHABBAT KIDDUSH LUNCHEON: Experience the flavors of Solomonov's featured recipes, cooked in-house by our volunteers. During the luncheon, you will be entertained by the sounds of David's Harp, a band which plays Sephardic music from Turkey, Greece, North Africa and the Middle East. The band members play several interesting and unusual instruments, including the santuri, darbuka, zills and daf. Free and open to the entire community. No RSVP necessary.

SATURDAY NIGHT: As we conclude Shabbat, everyone is welcome to join us at 8:30 for a nosh, Havdallah and an exclusive screening of "In Search of Israeli Cuisine" featuring Michael Solomonov who travels throughout Israel and meets with the chefs, home cooks, vintners and cheese makers who have influenced Israel's dynamic food scene. Free and open to the community, but RSVP is requested.

RSVP to Nancy Black: Nancyblack704@gmail.com / 610-934-1919.

Purchase your SIGNED COPY of the Zahav Cookbook for $35!

Solomonov's best-selling cookbook will be sold through the Adath Israel Asnis Judaica Gift Shop. Order by April 14th, 2017 and Michael Solomonov will personally sign your copy, which will be available for pick up on April 29, 2017 at the movie screening and after April 29th, in the gift shop. Pre-Purchase your book in the gift-shop or online: www.adathisrael.org/chaverware in the "events" section.
