

Salmonids in the Classroom

Teacher Workshops

Salmonids in the Classroom is a part of a free, statewide program through CDFW to improve student understanding, appreciation, and stewardship of California's salmon and trout. Educators will receive eggs and students get to watch them grow into small fish before releasing them into the wild. Join us at one of our FREE workshops to learn how your classroom can bring in the outdoors!

Visalia Workshop Thurs, October 12, 5-8:30 PM Tulare County Office of Education Sequoia Room 7000 Doe Ave. Visalia, CA 93291	Fresno Workshop Mon, October 16, 5-8:30 PM Woodward Park Regional Library Meeting Room 944 E. Perrin Ave. Fresno, CA 93720
Bakersfield Workshop Thurs, October 26, 5-8:30 PM Larry Reider Education Center 2000 K St., Room 201 Bakersfield, CA 93301	San Luis Obispo Workshop Wed, November 8, 5-8:30 PM San Luis Coastal Unified School District 1500 Lizzie Street, Bld. 1 San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

Light dinner provided
Project WILD Aquatic training & curriculum included
Please RSVP by emailing R4SalmonidsClassroom@wildlife.ca.gov

For additional program information, please visit www.wildlife.ca.gov/CAEP/