

Professor Mary Adkins

Master Legal Skills Professor
University of Florida

Professor Mary Adkins is a Master Legal Skills Professor at the University of Florida Levin College of Law. Professor Adkins teaches legal writing and appellate advocacy. She is faculty adviser to the Florida Moot Court Team, and has presented nationally and regionally on teaching and writing matters. She serves on the national board of the Association of Legal Writing Directors and as secretary of the AALS Section on Legal Writing, Reasoning, and Research.

Professor Adkins has researched the history of the 1968 Florida Constitution and its revisions, and in the summer of 2016, published the book Making Modern Florida: How the Spirit of Reform Shaped a New State Constitution (University Press of Florida, 2016). She has presented her Florida Constitution research at the University of South Florida, the University of Florida, Florida State University, Santa Fe College and Florida Coastal School of Law, as well as addressing professional, historical, and community organizations. She has conducted numerous oral history interviews of Florida legal, political and historical figures and is the secretary of the Florida Supreme Court Historical Society. Prior to joining UF Law, Professor Adkins worked in private practice. She earned her B.S.J., M.A., and J.D. from the University of Florida.
