BAITING HOLLOW GOLF CLUB
BAITING HOLLOW, NEW YORK

LONG ISLAND NURSERY AND LANDSCAPE ASSOCIATION

The Baiting Hollow club is a privately owned club located on the pristine North Fork of Long Island. The 138-acre course designed by Robert Trent Jones Senior was recently restored, featuring a luxurious 25,000 square foot clubhouse with every amenity for members' comfort. Built on the bluffs of the Long Island Sound, the Baiting Hollow Club golf course is known for its beautiful vistas, featuring many elevated tees and greens. Extraordinary management of turf and soil infrastructure has resulted in manicured greens and fairways, which offer the luxury of playing under the best conditions.

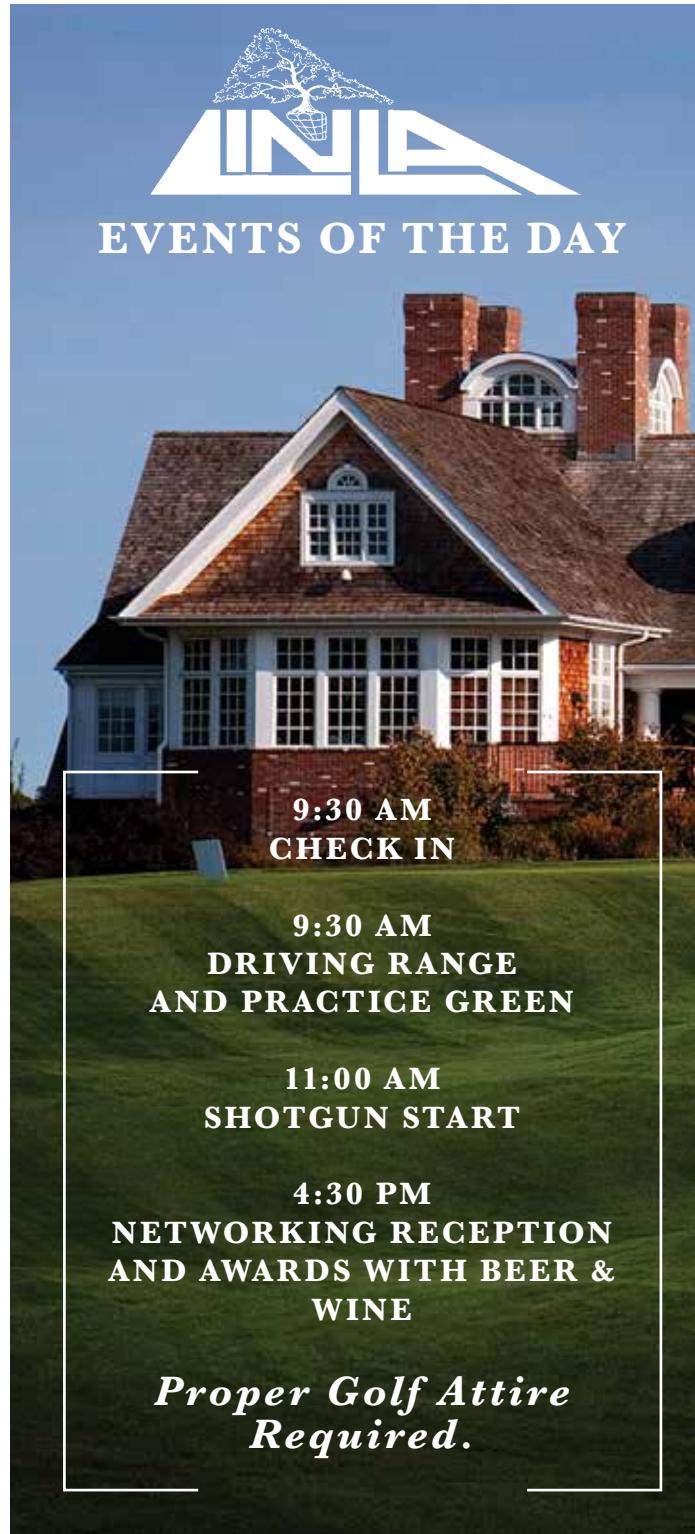

The play will be highlighted with contests throughout the day. Following your round of golf you can relax at the included cocktail party with open bar, followed by dinner.

Baiting Hollow's facilities will be available including the locker room, the fully stocked pro shop and the 19th hole terrace overlooking the golf course

A poster for the LINLA (Long Island Nursery and Landscape Association) Events of the Day. The poster features a large, ornate red brick building with a steep roof and multiple gables, likely the clubhouse. The LINLA logo, which consists of a stylized tree inside a triangle with the letters "LINLA" below it, is at the top. The text "EVENTS OF THE DAY" is centered below the logo. A large green box on the right side lists the events with their times: "9:30 AM CHECK IN", "9:30 AM DRIVING RANGE AND PRACTICE GREEN", "11:00 AM SHOTGUN START", "4:30 PM NETWORKING RECEPTION AND AWARDS WITH BEER & WINE", and "Proper Golf Attire Required." at the bottom. The background of the poster is a photograph of a golf course with a blue sky.
