

RETAILER ROUNDTABLE: SOIL HEALTH

You're invited to the first Retailer Roundtable focused on the important topic of soil health. We know you're who farmers go to first when they need advice, recommendations and resources. We also know when it comes to nutrient management and soil health there's a lot to know. We want you equipped with the industry's latest news, technology and tools to help farmers determine the practices that are most appropriate to achieve reductions in nutrient loss, improve nutrient management and soil health and, ultimately, Indiana's water quality.
