

EPISCOPAL VETERANS FELLOWSHIP

DAVID PETERS

With guest musician Rev. Dr. Matt Williams

DECEMBER 9TH, 2017

Just in time for Fr. Ted Howden's feast day, St. Chad's Episcopal Church invites you to come hear military chaplain Fr. David Peters, author of Post Traumatic God: How the Church Cares for People Who've Been to Hell and Back. He will share his story and about the group he's helped launch, Episcopal Veterans Fellowship. This presentation is open to all denominations and will include time for discussing similar groups in your context. It will conclude with a healing service for veterans which you are invited to witness, participate in, or replicate elsewhere.

Saturday December 9th

8:00 - 9:00: Breakfast Provided

9:00 - 11:30: Introduction

"Moral Injury and the Church's Response" with round table discussions

11:30 - 12:30: Healing ritual and blessing of veterans (note: participation is voluntary.

Everyone is invited to observe from a distance)

SUNDAY DEC. 10th

8 am & 10:15 am:

Reverend David Peters
will be the Guest Preacher

9:15 - 10:00 am:
Veterans Ministry
Presentation

*RSVP Required for breakfast, workshop, or both

St. Chad's Episcopal Church

7171 Tennyson NE, ABQ, NM 87122

office@stchadsabq.org or 505.856-9200

