

Arch Priestess Heather Salmon, BA, ACH,

HEATHER SALMON

An inspiring healer, planetary priestess, cultural creative, agent of change and recording artist. Driven by a knowing that we can create a new way of being on Earth that is sustainable, just, and thriving, Heather's passion is to inspire change through sharing lifestyle practices that cultivate peace and harmony!

In addition to offering classes, retreats and workshops Heather and her partner Donny Regalmuto are the visionary creators of the acclaimed Mystical Alchemy a prayerformance group and blend healing and performing arts in the creation of transformational multimedia, sound and energy healing journeys. Guided by the energies of astrology, the cycles of nature as well as planetary and current issues these innovative visionary mystics bring decades of experience as professional performers, healers and agents of social change.

Heather and Donny have collaborated on these popular prayerperformances with such luminaries as Alex and Allyson Grey, Maribai Devi, Dr. Rev. Matthew Fox, The Shift Network, the Pachamama Alliance and they have been featured at festivals including Burning Man, the Harmony Festival, Mystic Garden, and Source Festivals, as well as at World Beat Center (San Diego), Alchemist Conference (LA), the Contra Costa Crystal Fair, the Oakland Cosmic Mass, plus retreat centers, hot springs and yoga studios in California, Hawaii, Oregon, Mexico and Canada! In addition, Mystical Alchemy has produced 25 Sound Healing and music CDs and 2 DVDs to date, as well as many inspirational social media pieces!

Hailing from Toronto and of Jamaican and Celtic descent, Heather has also had numerous thriving ways she has served with her gifts. In 2014 she served as the Maui's GMO Initiative Director of the Petition Team which made history by being the first initiative in the history of the Hawaiian islands to successfully get a citizens initiative on the ballot. She has also been an international events producer for the NBA and for various other international sporting events, and has been a very successful professional model and SAG actress in Los Angeles where she cultivated her passion for the creative power of the healing and the performing arts. In 2011 she created, hosted and produced the Feminine Mystique Radio Show on Voice America.

Heather's passion is bridge healing and the performing arts into a powerful and lasting transformational experience. She is extensively trained in the healing and performing arts including Sound Healing, Anahata and Kundalini Yoga, Aerial Yoga Play, Advanced Clinical Hypnotherapy, Reflexology, Astrology, Aromatherapy, Non Violent Communication, Astrology, Reiki, Huna, Sound, Intuitive and Transpersonal Energy Healing, Classical Ballet, Belly Dance, Improv, Acting and Theatre. Heather has been engaged in sound healing as a shamanic vocal rebirthing practice for 17 years and has traveled and trained with renown international teachers including Karinia Sheld, Tom Kenyan, Jonathan Goldberg and Nara Boone. She plays 432hz crystal singing bowls which are tuned to the solfeggio scale and other sound healing instruments. Heather holds a degree in Economics from the University of Toronto and she is a Pachamama Alliance "Awakening the Dreamer, Changing the Dream" certified facilitator committed to bringing about a socially just, environmentally sustainable and peaceful world. She is also an ordained minister through the Church of the Essenes (2005) and an ordained High Priestess through the Temple of Isis (2010). In 2010 Heather founded the Black Swan Temple and subsequently relocated in December 2012 to Maui with her beloved Donny to cultivate their living eco temple complete with a food forest as a model of sustainability. They offer prayerperformances, retreats, workshops, classes and Mystery School Trainings based on the Sevenfold Path of Peace! www.BlackSwanTemple.org
