NEW! After School Art Classes coming in September!

Starting in September, we will be offering art classes for grade K-12 at the Center. Classes will be held three days a week, with specific grade related curriculum. Classes include art, photography and more. A full list of classes, and registration information, will be announced in June, on our website. Classes will be held September to December, and February to May. We will continue Summer of Art Classes in July 2019, with an expanded selection of classes.
