2018 TRADE SHOW

North Carolina: First in Forestry

Dear Exhibitor,

For the 70th Anniversary of ACF, we will be returning to the cradle of forestry in America, Asheville, North Carolina. The conference will be held at the iconic Omni Grove Park Inn June 9 – 12, 2018. Unsurpassed for scenic beauty and history, Asheville also has more breweries per capita than anywhere in the U.S. Pair that with a vibrant foodie scene and you have a recipe for “hog heaven.”

As an exhibitor at the ACF National Conference, you will have an opportunity to showcase your company’s products to consulting foresters from across the country. As this is a very special occasion – and within driving distance for 75% of our membership -- We anticipate record attendance.

The North Carolina Chapter is planning a stellar technical session plus a field tour of the Biltmore Estate and the Cradle of Forestry. We hope you will stay for the whole event and bring your family too. Everyone is welcome, and we promise a great experience for all!

As for the past five years, the exhibitor fee is $795 (included if you choose Platinum Sponsorship). If you sign up to exhibit before January 1, 2018, you will receive a complimentary ticket to the field tour valued at $75. As usual, the exhibitor fee includes one registration for the conference, a booth space with a table and two chairs and all provided meals, breaks and regular meeting events.

If you are a long-time exhibitor, we appreciate your continued support. If you have never attended an ACF Conference, this one would be a great opportunity to start!
