The Capital Times — the people's newspaper.

Kiddie Camp Fund winds up

By FRANK CUSTER

The Capital Times' 86th annual Kiddie Camp Fund campaign officially comes to a close today, with this year's total of contributions from area sources amounting to $13,290.55.

The money, given by many area donors along with a number of new donors, will help provide needed aid to the 900 or more developmentally disabled children at the Kiddie Camp Training Center, and assure proper maintenance of that facility.

Chairman of the Kiddie Fund drive was William C. Otterafsl, Dane County Multi-Service Board member.

For a few months, the "Capital Times" fund-raising activity on behalf of the Kiddie Camp kids and training project for Madison area developmentally disabled children has been in a temporary hibernation, with the work with those handicapped children improving and the need for the center growing.

The drive was a modest success for the Kiddie Camp Fund — limited assistance to two related children at the Kiddie Camp Training Center was the only financial goal set for the campaign.

The fund closed at $2,580.50, with a donation of $400 from the Orange County Copley Foundation. Those two children are the only handicapped children in the Madison area who are not attending the Kiddie Camp Training Center.

In all the years since Mr. Evjue was founder and first publisher of the "Capital Times," there has been no larger sum pledged and received.

In 1927, the total was $14,424.98; in 1932, $18,195.21; in 1938, $17,215.69; in 1940, $18,417.70; in 1945, $17,917.63; in 1950, $15,448.58; in 1955, $24,705.31; in 1960, $25,091.64; in 1965, $22,411.97.

With the campaign over, Mr. Evjue will now be able to turn his attention to the third quadrennium of his second term of office as publisher of the "Capital Times" newspaper.

"Kiddie Camp, Madison area citizens, has been a success story, and we are glad that we have been a part of it," said Mr. Evjue, "but we are ready to begin a new drive and set new goals for the future.

The campaign was a success in terms of donations, but also in terms of raising awareness of the needs of developmentally disabled children. We are grateful to all those who contributed to the campaign and to those who will continue to support Kiddie Camp in the future.

Let us remember the children of Kiddie Camp and the important work they do.

---

Odana arson suspect caught

By ROSEMARY KENDRICK

The majority of Americans are no longer interested in black people or black problems, according to Myron P. Robinson, executive director of the Urban League for the past six years.

"In the past year, we have been asked by the American people to take a stand on whether or not we are interested in the problems facing black people," Robinson said in a Capital Times interview.

"We have decided that we are interested," Robinson said. "We need to help those in need and we need to address the issues that affect our community."

Robinson leaves, says city doesn't care about blacks

---

9 arrested in gang fight

---

Winter haven for ducks

---

Flans, Inc. — President-elect Carter, surveying the next few months of his new administration, said in an interview yesterday that he expects White House, says it wants public suggestions as to how it can work more effectively with the public and in the area of international relations.

Closing out a year that brought from relatives of the organization and in the area of international relations.

Casting for the next two years, Carter said that he expects White House, says it wants public suggestions as to how it can work more effectively with the public and in the area of international relations.

Closing out a year that brought...
MURDERS PROBE ASKS $6.5 million; RAY MAY TALK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Assassinations will probably have to go to the White House today for some new witnesses, or else for some new information that will allow it to proceed with its probe of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, sources said yesterday.

Chairman Don Young, R-Wash., and Rep. John B. Anderson, R-Ill., have announced that they will try to get President Ford and other officials in the White House to testify. They said that they have been working on the investigation for nearly two years and have already learned a great deal about the assassination.

Radicals present ongoing threat to China leaders

By JOHN ROBERTS

MIAMI (AP) — New reports of violence in China suggest that the regime of Mao Tse-tung's widow and her allies are trying to take over the country, Chinese sources say.

The reports, which have been circulating in China, say that the radicals were strongly influential in the decade preceding Mao's death last year.

They say that the radicals were responsible for the Cultural Revolution, which lasted from 1966 to 1976, and that they were also responsible for the Cultural Revolution's aftermath, which lasted from 1976 to 1980.

The radicals were strong in the military, and it is believed that they are still strong today.

They say that the radicals are also responsible for the death of many Chinese leaders, including Premier Zhou En-lai and Foreign Minister Chou En-lai.

The radicals have been described as a "great threat," and it is believed that the Chinese government is trying to suppress them.

Miami hotelkeepers claim strike hasn't hurt business

(Continued from Page 1)

"They're already getting into a "bidding war" with the Washington Post," one Miami hotelkeeper said.

"The News World, with an editorial staff of 130 and a press run of 88,000, was the latest to be struck. Others are the New York Times, the Washington Post, and the Miami Herald."}

Moon's first paper hits the street

The magazine company reportedly suffered losses of up to $2.5 million when it began publishing New World in 1965. The company was forced to file for bankruptcy in 1968.

Accident on the Baitline

Newspaper acquisition proposed

The proposed purchase would be the latest in a series of acquisitions made by the Post. The Post already owns the Washington Daily News, the Washington Times, and the Washington Star.

The modern press claims that Ching's efforts to subvert the military in Beijing were successful and that Chiang's successors are trying to put an end to the "great chaos."

"The press claims that Chiang's efforts were successful and that Chiang's successors are trying to put an end to the "great chaos.""