

REACHING HOME

Missoula's 10-Year Plan to End Homelessness

A Year in Review and Looking Ahead

January 23rd, 2018 • City Council Chambers • 4-6 pm

Reaching Home was approved unanimously by the Missoula City Council and Board of County Commissioners in 2012, and lays out clear solutions for ending homelessness in Missoula. A Year in Review and Looking Ahead is a panel discussion moderated by Eran Pehan, Director of the City of Missoula Office of Housing & Community Development. Panelists include:

Theresa Williams, Reaching Home Coordinator, City of Missoula

Julie McFarland, Technical Assistance Provider

Cindy Weese, Executive Director, YWCA

Laurie Pope, Project Coordinator, Open Aid Alliance

Amy Chesebro, Jail Diversion Program Manager, Western MT Mental Health

Merry Hutton, Regional Director for Community Benefit & Care Transitions, Providence Saint Patrick Hospital

Mary Jane Nealon, Director of Innovation, Partnership Health Center

Don Evans, Executive Director, Union Gospel Mission of Missoula

Jill Bonny, Program Manager, Housing MT Heroes, Poverello Center

Will Gardner, Outreach Worker, Homeless Outreach Team, Poverello Center

Darren Ashby, Board Member, Missoula Interfaith Collaborative

Shelagh More, Business Improvement District Downtown Officer, Missoula Police Department

