

Looking for ways to make your community healthier?

T4T Training Trainers

What it is

A free training program for community members who want to grow leadership in their neighborhoods.

The 2018 program has a focus on health and gives community members and leaders the tools they need to make a positive impact in their community.

- ◆ Teaches the core skills for community building
- ◆ Focuses on creating strong and healthy neighborhoods
- ◆ Examines how current conditions of neighborhoods came to be
- ◆ A space for practice and structured feedback
- ◆ A great networking opportunity to learn from others across Houston's neighborhoods

Ideal Candidates

- ◆ Are part of a neighborhood team of up to 5-7 members, including no more than 1-2 staff of an organization or institutional partner
- ◆ Can be individuals
- ◆ Are passionate about creating strong and healthy neighborhoods
- ◆ Are committed to growing leadership in others
- ◆ Have an interest in teaching or coaching

Schedule

Saturdays

Workshop 9:00am-2:00pm — lunch provided

June 30
July 28
August 18
September 22
October 27
December 1

How to apply

Scan the code or go to goo.gl/wFfg7A to apply

Questions? Contact Iris Gonzalez, Program Officer—Houston LISC
igonzalez@lisc.org or 713-597-6837

United Way of Greater Houston